

Drace Same

UNDER THE GREENWOOD TREE

GREENWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Springfield, Missouri

1969

Volume 44

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	. 4
CURRICULUM
ORGANIZATIONS	26
STUDENTS	38
SUMMER
FALL	64
WINTER	78
SPRING	90

To everything
There is a season
And a time
To every purpose
Under the heaven . . .

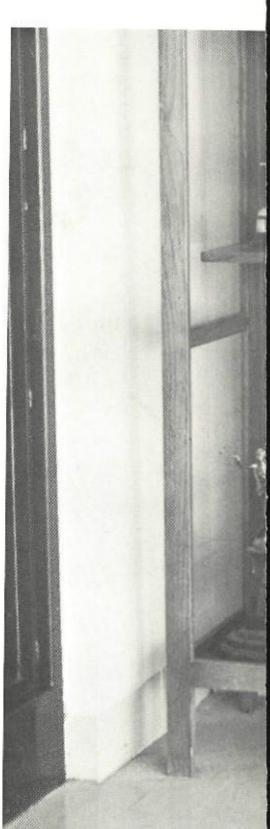

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

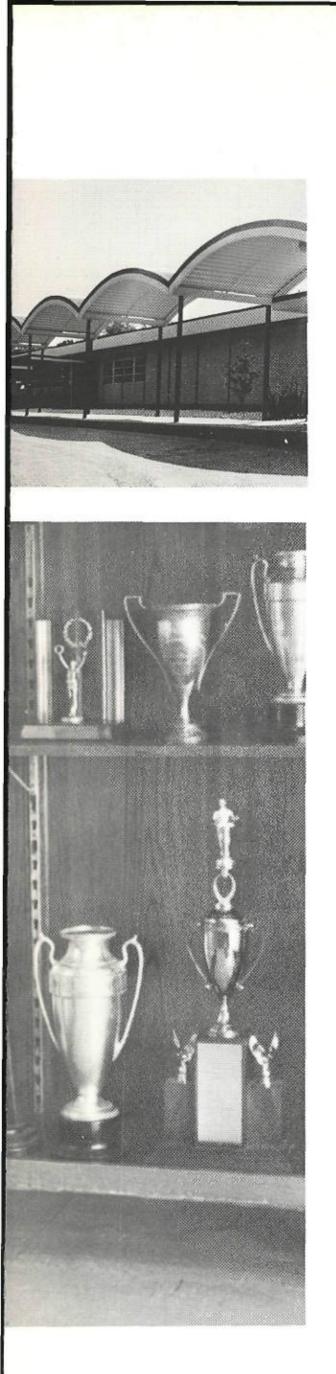

A time to sow . . .

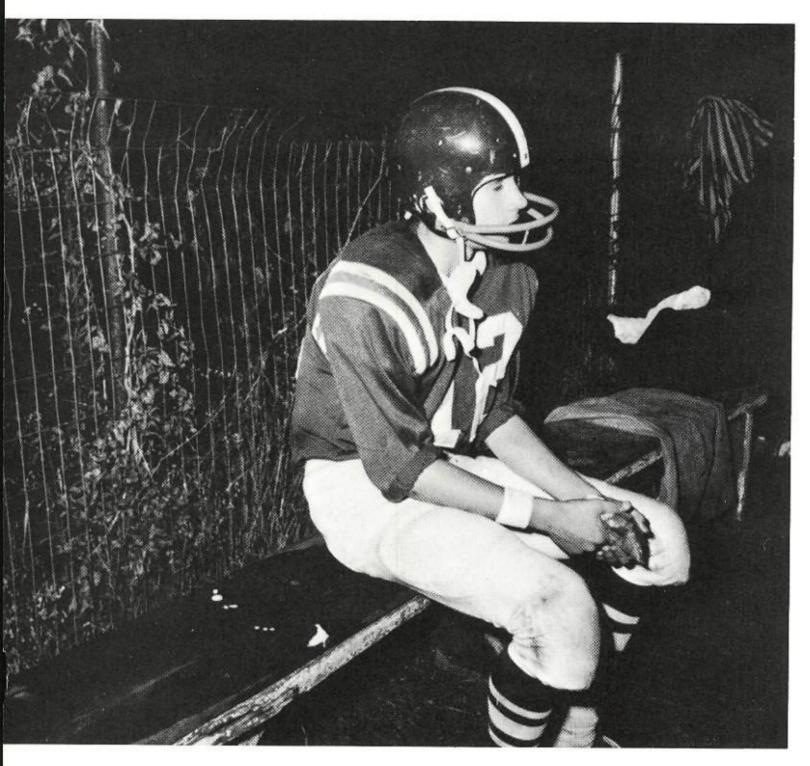

A time to reap . . .

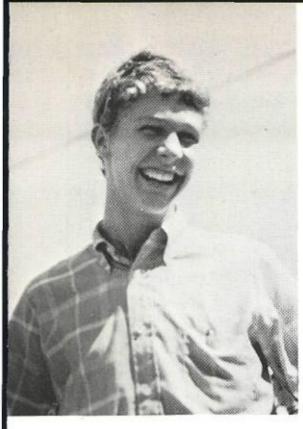

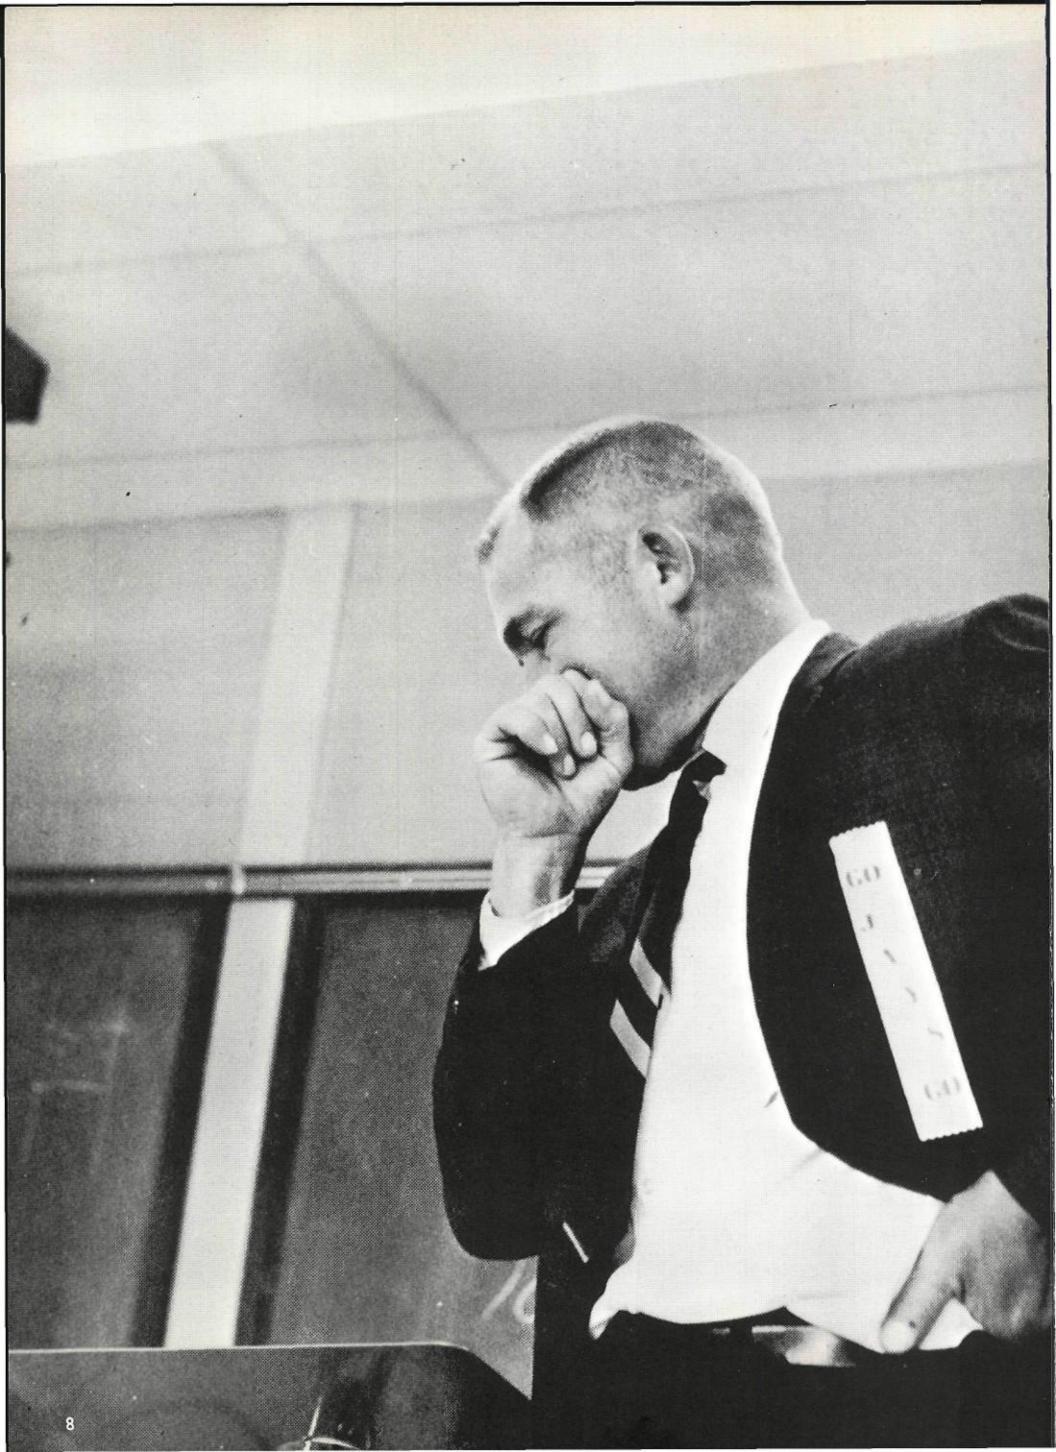

A time of solitude . . .

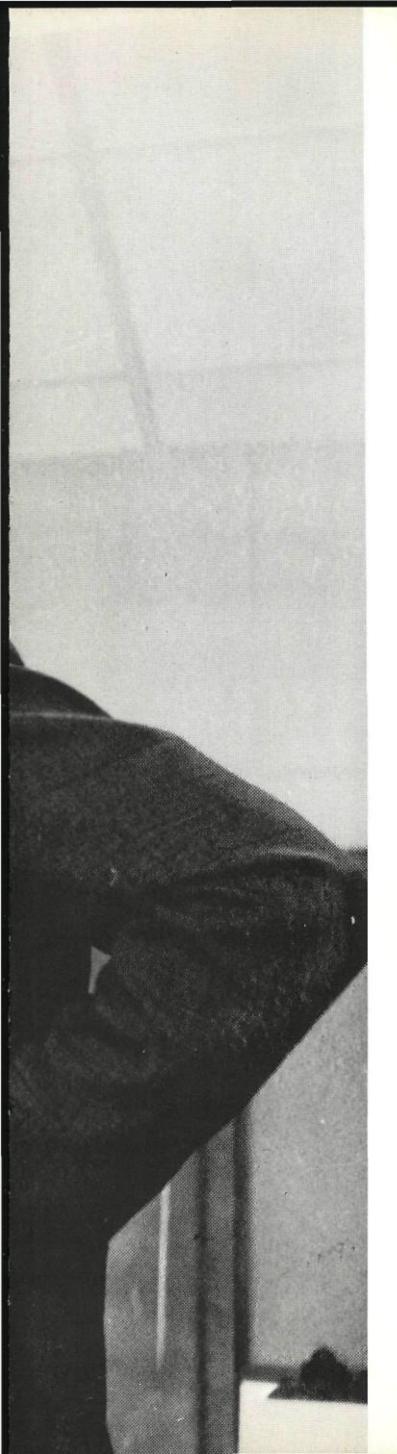

A time of company . . .

CURRICULUM

By their fruits Ye shall know them . . .

Matthew 7:20

They serve

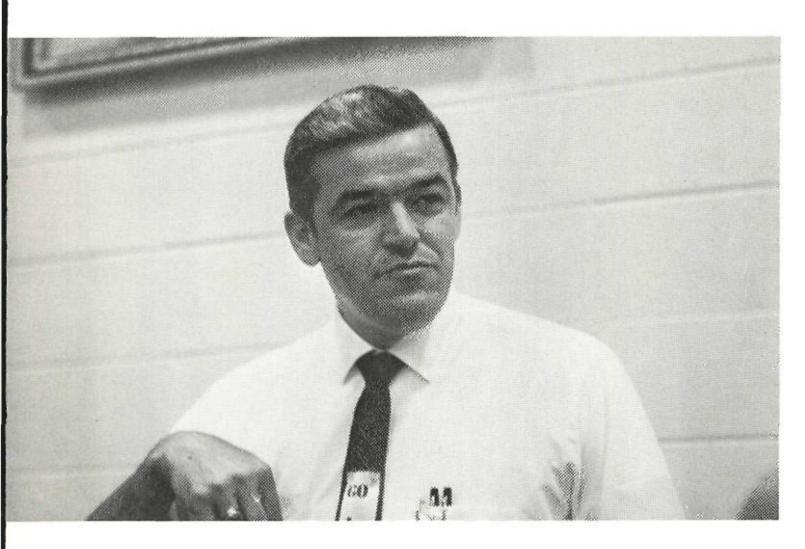

To make us better

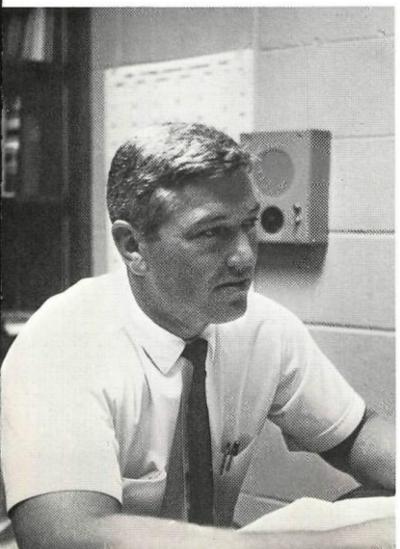

Announcements ... Can I have the key to ... high goals ... "He's in conference" ... answering phones ... permanent transcript ... leadership ... changing schedules ... discipline ... extracurricular activities ... seventeen credits ... bells ringing ... policies ... failing notes ... sympathetic ears ... "about your grades" ... requirements ... clacking typewriters ... memos ... there is always time to talk ... observers checking in ... world-shattering problems ... solutions ...

Upper left: Rita Turner, Naomi Sanders (Secretaries). Above: Dr. P. O. Copley (Dean of Education). Right: Dr. James Jester (Director).

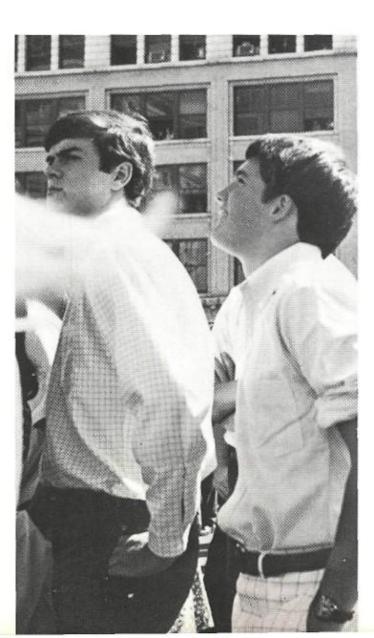

Above: Joe Phillips (Assistant to the Director).

Left: Paul Mullins (Guidance Counselor).

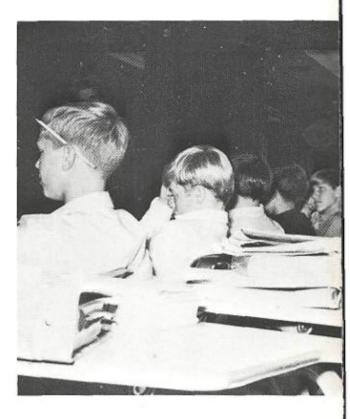

A search through history for one's ideals

Missouri notebooks ... note taking ... Gracie ... political rallies and elections ... turning back pages ... field trips ... books yellowed with age ... long lists of historical names on the board ... passing notes ... arguing on current events ... discovering Attila the Hun was bow-legged ... shelves crammed with ancient books ... National Geographics in the back of the room ... pulling blinds to watch films ... last minute glancing over history notes ... Joan of Arc ... Do you have something to share with the class? ... world maps ... student council reports ... moving chairs for tests ... colorful bulletin boards ... lost chalk ... Latin American ... What are the three branches of government? ... a silent warning for tomorrow

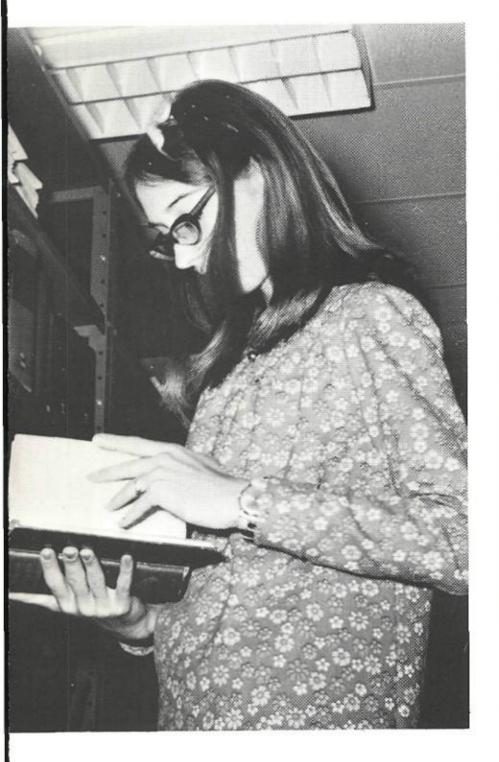

Dr. Grace Gardener sponsors student council and AFS, as well as serving as supervisor of history. She received her MA in education and her EdD from the University of Missouri.

Above: Films change routine for eighth graders. (Paul Mullins, Mark Haseltine, Colin Burstall). Left: Political rallies help students to get to know candidates' ways for themselves. (Jack Neely, Steve Rich).

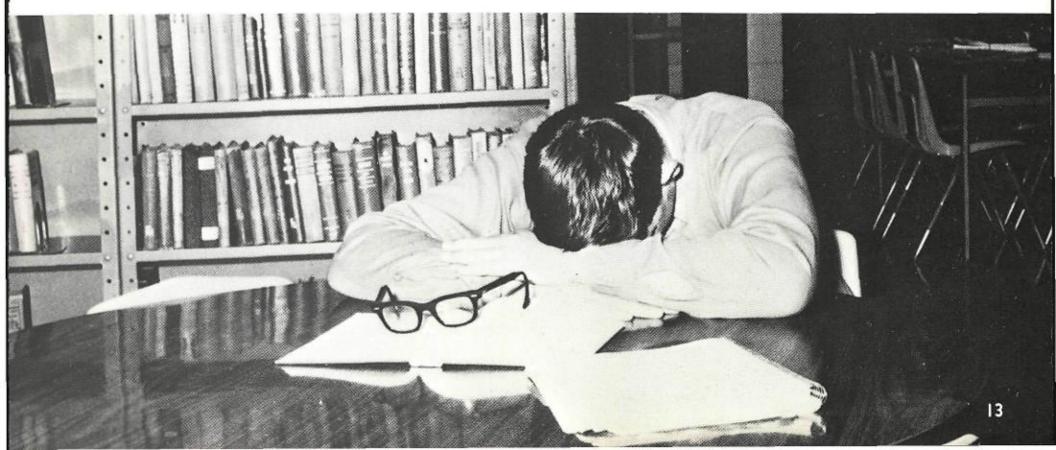

. . . Concentration . . .

Sounds of silence ... whispers across the room ... sudden silence as the supervisors walk in ... reading magazines instead of doing homework ... frantically looking for a book for your report ... quiet ... Jane Eyre ... sleep ... return of free elect ... groping in the card file ... quiet meditation ?... sneaking in overdue books ... Edgar Allen Poe ... study ... reading ... checking in with Mrs. Westmoreland ... cramming for a test ... Mr. Baird's assignments ... watching cars go by ... Forever Amber ... watching the clock ... realizing you hear the bell ... sharpening your pencil ... talking in sign language ...

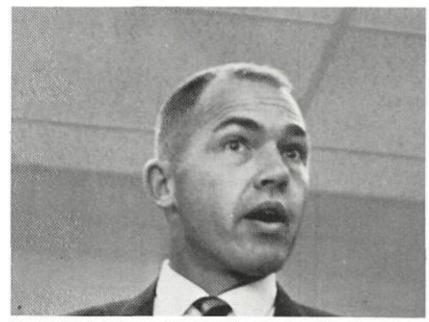

Left: The library is a quiet place for reading, (Patti Ellis). Above: Mrs. Westmoreland, librarian and sponsor of grade nine. Below: A profitable way to use the library? (Mike Shafer)

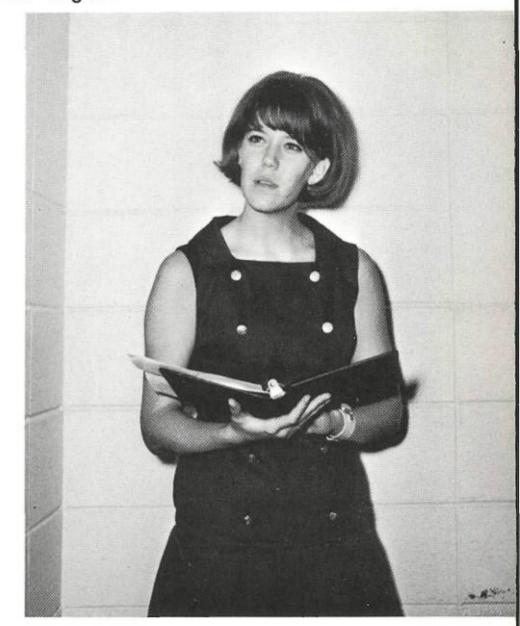

Literature is

Experienced and expressed in Speech and English

Sentence diagrams ... introductions and conclusions ... correct word usage ... extemp. files ... intransitive verbs ... geneologies ... demonstration speeches ... accelerated reading ... Beowolf ... precise gestures ... The Old Man and The Sea ... bus rides to Neosho ... vocabulary tests ... "Practive your poetry" ... short stories ... stage fright ... Shakespeare ... lost grammar books ... a teacher's understanding ...

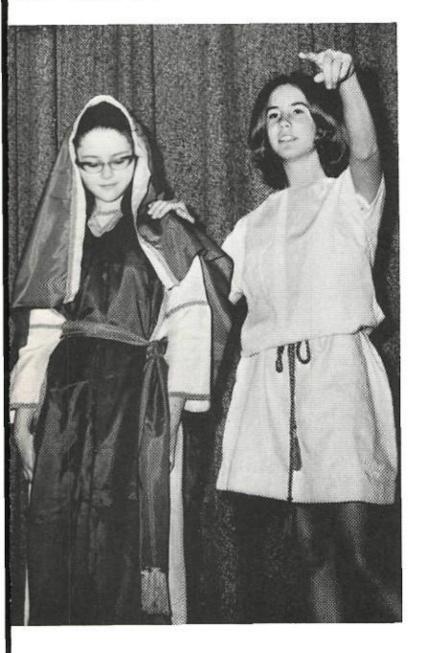

Charles R. Baird supervises English, directs and is the sponsor of the Cub Standard.

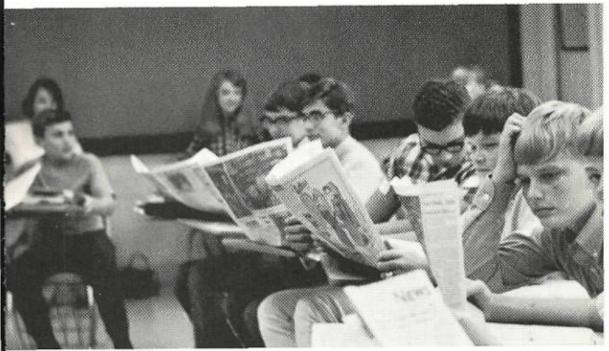

Upper right: One of the many units speech students have to study is Dramatic reading. (Lynn Burstall)..\bove Watching films in reading lab increases reading ability. (Sara H'Doubler, Ellen Criswell).

Ancient metaphors Take on meaning when English and Latin are associated Cake walks and slave sales ... Roman Market Days ... caroling ... Great Expectations ... derivatives ... book reports ... jot that down ... Latin Club initiation ... Friday checks ... verb ends ... vini, vidi, vici .. vocabulary ... sentence structure ... no assignments on weekends ... spelling ... translation ... absent slips ... short story readers ... seven's a lucky number ... word banks ... diagrams ... pronunciation ... lab books ... chariot races ... tunicas ... dictionaries ... money for AFS ... Gallic wars ... Caesar's marches ... appreciating literature ... living language ...

Upper right: Mildred Rice is sponsor of Latin Club and takes care of its funds. She is also supervisor of English and Latin. She received her BS from SMS. Upper left: Slave sales raise money for a worthy cause: AFS. (Beth Ann Whittaker, Inez Tibbits.) Above: Reading local newspapers increases knowledge of grammar and sentence composition. (Bob Kollmeier, Bill Long, Paul Liepman).

Life is short; Art is lasting

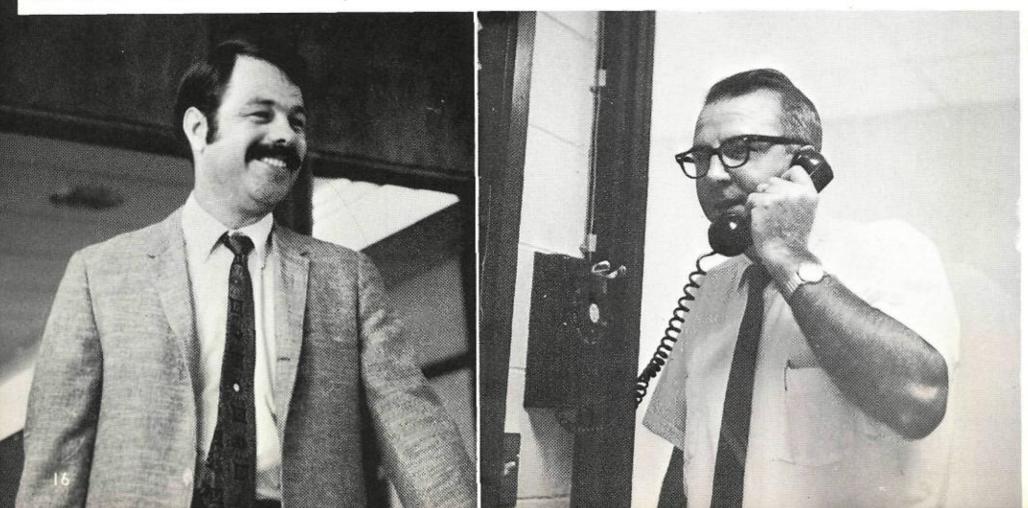

Suggestive collages ... paint-streaked faces ... love beads ... no paper towels or soap ... Mr. K. ... inspiration ... blank paper ... string designs ... black ink helps everything ... figure drawing ... office conferences ... models ... Van Gogh ... smear that charcoal ... melted crayolas ... black boots and brocade ties ... Modigliani ... art show ... principles of art design ... pen and ink ... decoupages ... posters ... clay heads and pottery ... sculptured frogs and owls ... dirty hands ... glue on the table ... color and line ... your own brushes ... be original ... creativity ... talent ... genius? ... rushing on unfinished design folders ... color wheels ... stenciled letters ... toothpick sculptures ... finally: results ...

Shoebox collages tax one's imagination and increase one's creative ability. (Cathy Corbett, Doug Grann, Elizabeth Harris.)

Thomas Kinsey, supervisor of art, received his BS in education from SMS and his MA from Missouri University

Everett R. Payne, Jr., is supervisor of art. He received his BS in Education from SMS and his MA from Missouri University.

Home Ec . . . Creative Outlet For Girls

Needles and pins . . . fallen cakes . . . Emily Post . . . etiquette . . . pattern books . . . pricked fingers . . . furniture arrangements . . . color wheels . . . center pieces . . . fashion shows . . . seam rippers . . . interior decoration . . . table manners . . . darts . . . burned steaks . . . seams . . . cooking demonstrations . . . frilly aprons . . . child care . . . chocolate chip cookies . . . pressing hams . . . sewing machines . . . satisfaction in creation . . .

Left: Francis Webb, supervisor of Home Economics, received her MA in design from M.U. Below: Home Ec. students host open house. (Valerie Flood, Debby Reisner.)

Above: Sewing is not only enjoyable, but is a beneficial skill for the girls in Home Economics. (Jan Wilson, Joy Petiford.)

Apex And Multiplex Compete For Industrial Work

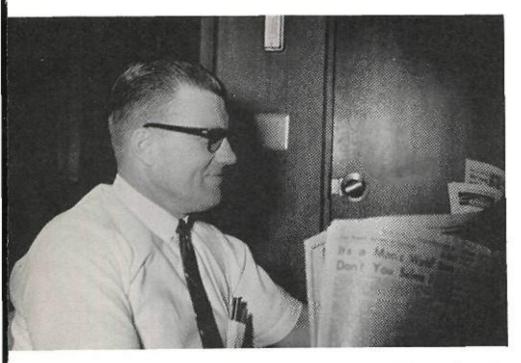

Right: Shop class offers meaningful learning and exercises creative ability. (David Ball, Mike Williams, Stan Smith, Dennis Martino, Rick McQueary.) Lower right: The rock polisher is an interesting piece of machinery. (Peter H'Doubler, Colin Burstall.) Below: Nelson Parke, supervisor of Industrial Arts, received his MS from Kansas State University.

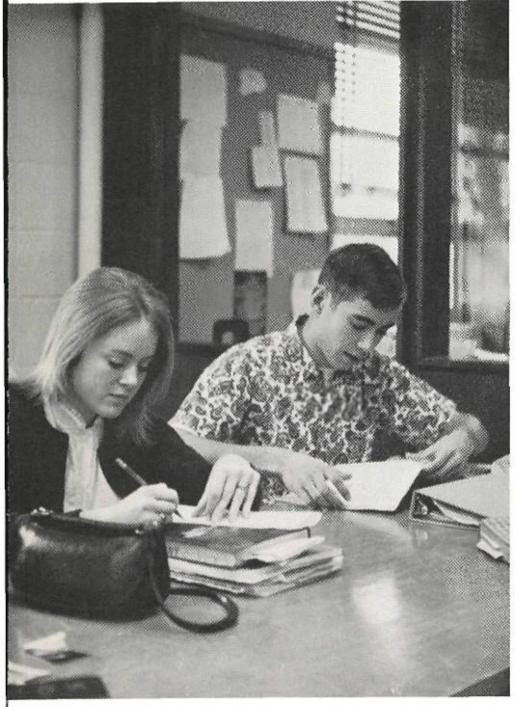

Making pen sets . . . welding metals together . . . selling stocks of Apex and Multiplex to unsuspecting students . . . constructing street posts . . . questionnaires . . . having fun . . . working hard . . . time cards . . . making displays . . . using your hands . . . doing your own thing . . . Mr. Parke's helping hand (when needed) . . . student teachers . . . loud noises . . . industry . . . three way towel racks . . . interesting tools . . . building and tearing down . . . accomplishment! . . .

Business Prepares For A Practical World

John Domeny, who supervises business, received his MEd from the University of Missouri. He is also in charge of activity funds at GHS.

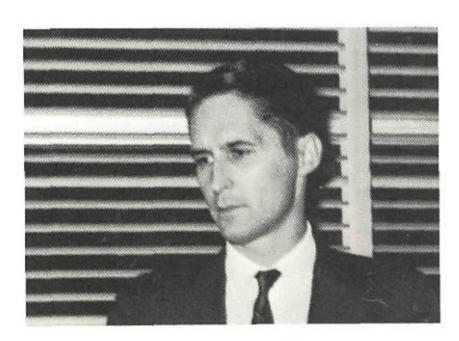

The difficult task of balancing books accurately is undertaken in the Basic Business class. (Susie Frey, Larry Pohl.)

Doing study guides . . . going on field trips . . . balancing your budget . . . straightening out the debits and credits . . . learning just how high interest really is . . . losing your whole workbook . . . doing your work sheets and journals the night before the final . . . forgetting the arrangement of the eight-column work sheet . . . finger exercises . . . learning to throw with the bell . . . typing with your typewriter turned off . . .

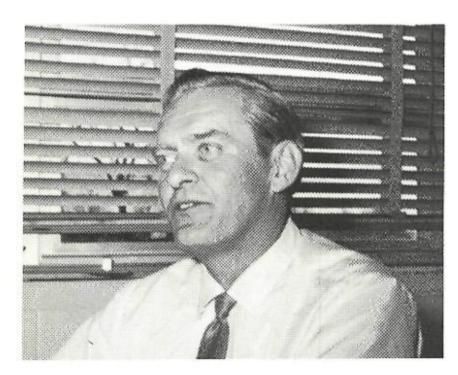

Above: Students enjoy the pleasure of hitting the 6 instead of the 7. (Stanley Smith.) Below: Typing teacher Mr. Haden, received his Masters degree at Central Missouri State College.

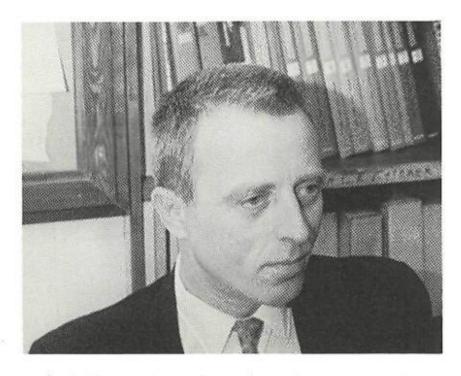

Math Teaches Principles Of Logic

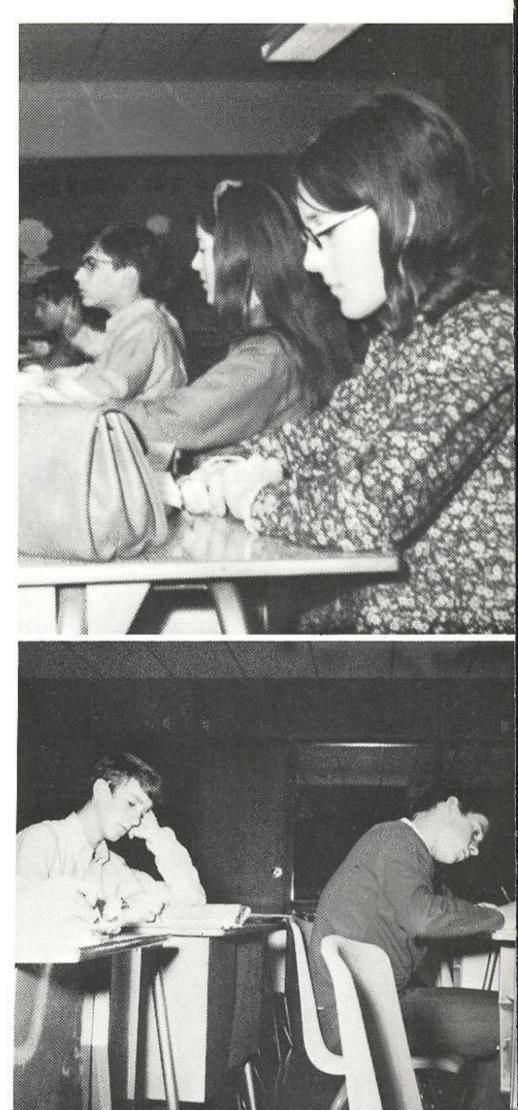

Basic math . . . Algebra I . . . sets . . . lines . . . homework . . . Happiness is finishing the hardest chapters . . . numbers . . . more numbers . . . Geometry . . . (Can't wait till lunch) . . . angles . . . etc! . . . Math IV . . . good old math room . . . worry, worry, worry . . . "How can you do New Math problems with an Old Math mind?" . . . Algebra II . . . think . . . Concentrate . . . learn! . . . blackboards . . . lots of questions and answers . . . O.K. once you get the hang of it . . . tests . . . grades . . . Who's in the observatory? . . . What a day for a day dream . . protractors . . . You'll be glad you took Math . . .

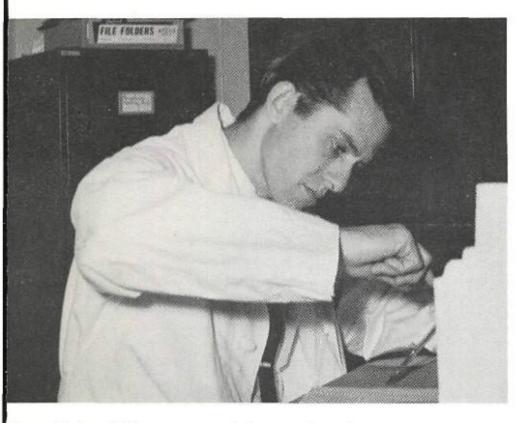

William Jack Bush, sponsor of the senior class, received his EdD from the University of Arkansas.

Richard Moore advises the tenth grade as sponsor, having received his MA from Drury College.

Math takes a great deal of concentration. Top: The eighth grade class is shown listening intently to a lecture. (Paul Liepman, Judy Harvey, Sarah Downing.) Above: Algebra II class is working hard on an assignment. (Steve Curtis, Walter Powell.)

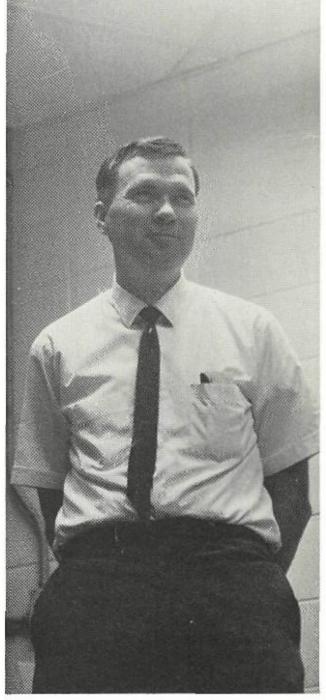

Above: Robert McLaren received his MA from the University of Misouri. He teaches biology and functional science. Below: These budding cientists are getting experience in measuring chemicals in Functional Science. (Laura Elliot, G-g Taylor.)

"Investigation Is The Search For The Substance Of Life"

Experimentation leading to conclusions . . . petri dishes . . . confusion of formulas . . . oscar . . . test tubes . . . open book tests . . . broken beakers . . . "my microscope is gone!" . . . H2O . . . Mr. Hoggard's stories . . . lab books . . . the smell of sulphur . . . learning to use a slide rule . . . minor explosions . . . staring at the tarantulas . . . photosynthesis . . . Mr. McLaren's snakes . . . cells . . . impossible equations . . . frustrating directions . . . acid . . . different types of motion . . . theories of relativity . . . reflection . . . the patience of good teachers . . understanding why . . .

Frank Hoggard teaches physics and chemistry. He received his MST from Rolla.

"God Respects Me When I Work, But He Loves Me When I Sing"

Singing Christmas carols on the old Greenwood steps ... practicing Christmas cantatas in early September ... talking instead of playing your instruments in band ... Attention! ... doing your homework in Chorus ... the boys on the back row ... wearing black and white ... one ratings at music festivals ... we need more tenor voices ... waiting for your name to be called for roll ... trying out for solos for the cantatas ... harmony ... the sopranos trying to hit high notes ... watch your key ... one, two—play ... practicing sight reading ... expressing joy through music ...

F. Bion McCurry sponsors the Drum and Bugle Corps, Song Spinners, Tune Twisters, and the Bell Choir, a new activity this year. He is also the supervisor of music. He received his EdD from the University of Missouri.

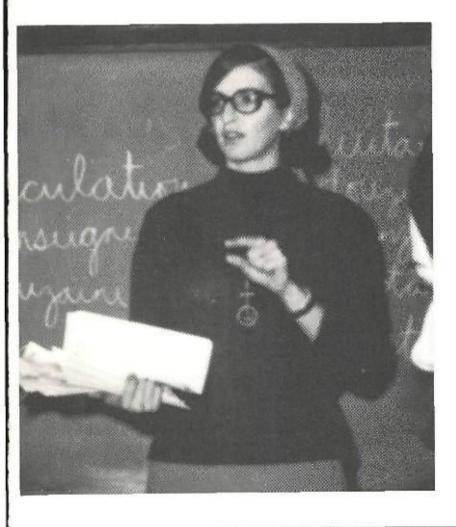

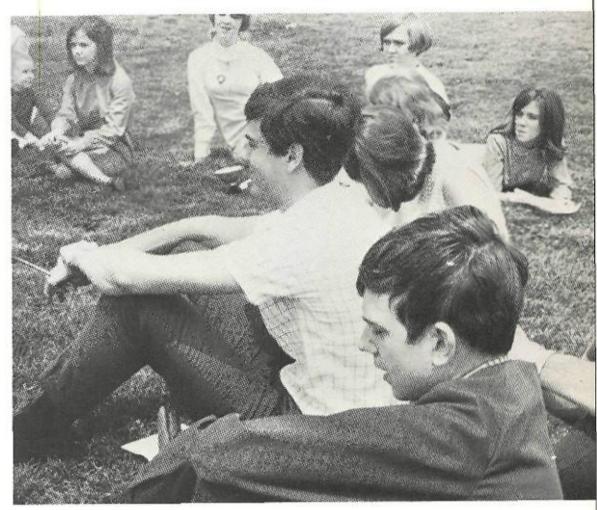

Chorus dubiously explores the joy of singing the Christmas cantata in September. (Juana Frydman, Mary Kay Hawkins.)

Students

Discover France Through Its Language

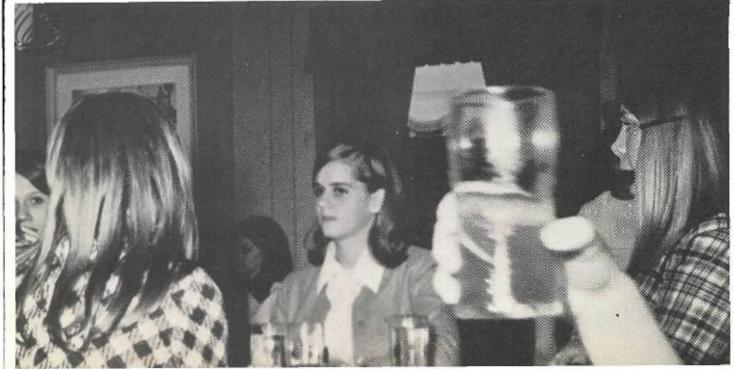

Bon Marche . . . learning to use earphones . . . Chef Tetarts . . . Bango during Speech tourneys . . . Attention . . . broken tape recorders . . . The Marseilles . . . "Je t'adore" . . . dictation . . . French Christmas songs . . . new names . . . Cherries Jubilee . . . Bonjour Andre . . . wastebaskets with a theme . . . caroling in the halls . . . grammar . . . term papers . . . when you go to France . . . Haiku poetry . . . crepe suzettes . . . subjunctive . . . oui, vergule . . .

Upper right: French II students find that having class outdoors makes understanding the language more enjoyable. (Elfrieda McCrory, Julie Gilmore, Jack Neely, Krissie Kieferndorf, Loren Robinson, Penny Reeves.)

Left, Mary Pilant is supervisor of French and sponsor of French club. She received her MA degree from Duke University. Lower left: These juniors seem to be enjoying their meal at the club's trip to Chef Tetarts. (Alice Yancey, Lora Stewart.)

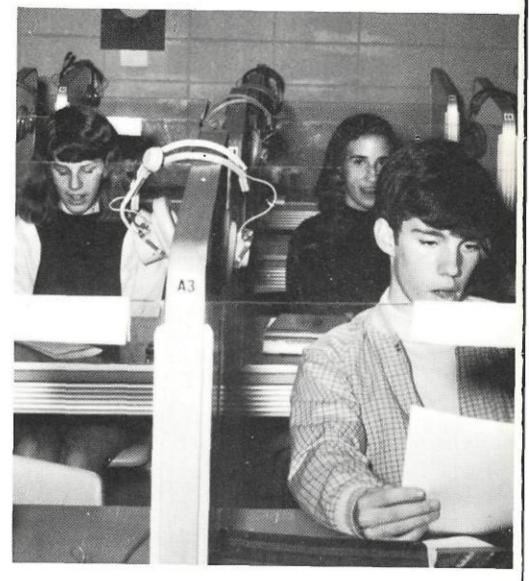

Dinner At Riverside

Climaxes Year For Spanish Students

Buenos dias, muchachos! Como esta usted? . . . upside-down question marks . . . the intricacies of grammar . . . "Spanish" fried chicken at Riverside . . . skits . . . dictation and dialogues . . . learning about a country's people . . . Don Quixote . . . counting to ten . . . what's your name? . . . Spanish bulletin boards . . . listening to tapes in the lab . . . exams . . . caroling through the halls . . . singing Spanish carols to city residents . . . slides of sunny Mexico seen on rainy days . . .

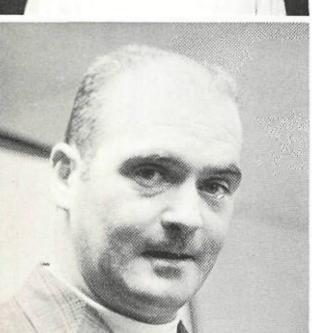

Above: Spanish students sing carols to prepare for Christmas. (Mary Kurtz, Jeanne Picotte, Gary Herrick.) Left: Ruth Norton supervises Spanish and sponsors Spanish club. She received her BS from MU. Below: Seventh graders take Spanish as an elective course. (Julia Hayes, Nanette Philibert, Wendy Sundstrom.)

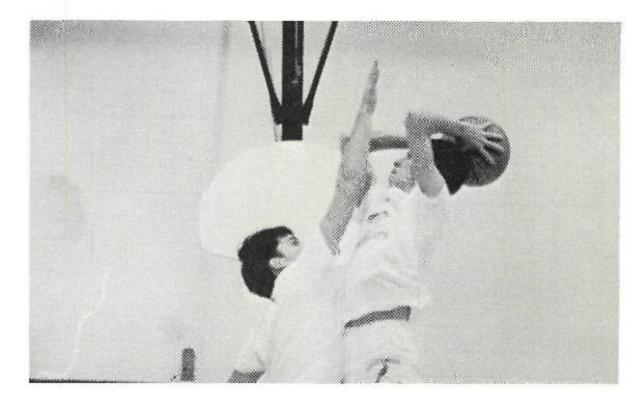

A Sound Body: A Sound Mind

Are we dressing out? . . . shared gym clothes . . . the clanking of lockers . . . responding to a whistle . . . exercises . . . the shiny wood expanse of the gym floor . . . modern dance . . . student leaders . . . "Say Physical Education, not P.E." . . . the circuit . . . "squad-up" . . . baseball, soccer . . . weight lifting is good for you . . . crab! . . . calisthenics . . . square dancing . . the trampoline . . . three minutes to dress . . .

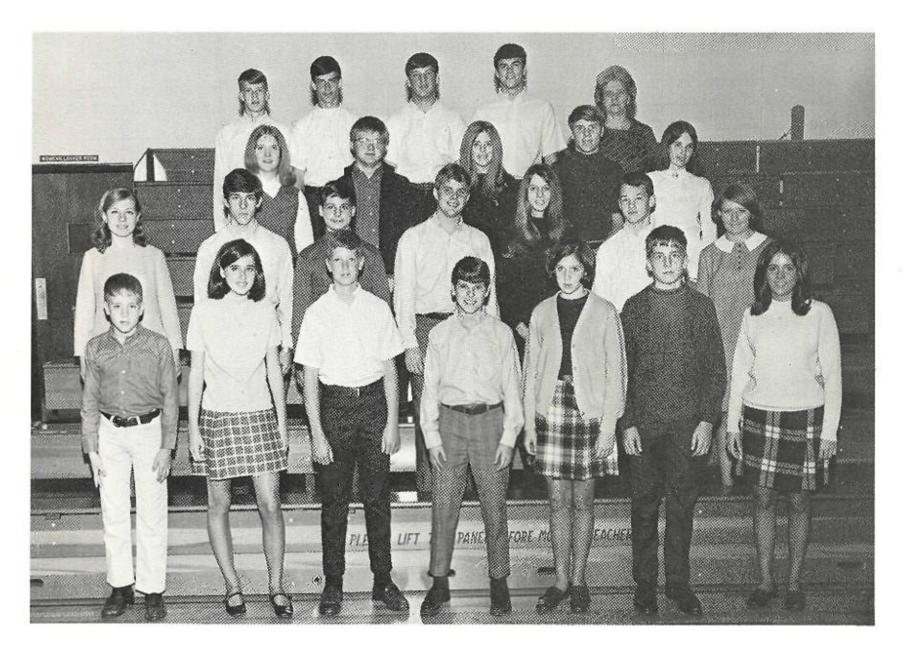

Upper left: Georgia Ytell sponsors the cheerleaders and supervises girls' P.E. She received her MS from Kansas State College. Larry Atwood is supervisor of boys' P.E. He received his MA from Drury. Above: Basketball offers an outlet for pentup energy. (Steve Rich, Steve Paine.) Left: Modern dance provides a chance for girls to express themselves. (Marlene Moore, Laura Elliot.)

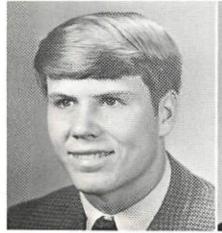

ORGANIZATIONS

From the spirit of communities grows the joy of living

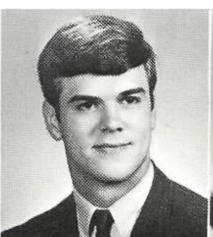

Lyn Crosby

STUDENT COUNCIL: Row I, left to right: Kurt H'Doubler, Cathy Wilson, Paul Mullins, Tiger Hopkins, Carol Morris, Bobby Harmon, and Penny Reeves. Row 2: Juana Frydman, Gary Herrick, Jean Paul Bradshaw, Steve Stombaugh, Sarah Hopkins, Bryan Luna, and Linda Roberts. Row 3: Julie Gilmore, Don Patterson, Mary Kay Hawkins, Paul Redfearn, and Marti Rosen. Row 4: Rick McQueary, Paul Meyer, Mark Ringenburg, Jack Neely, and Dr. Grace Gardner.

Paul Redfearn President

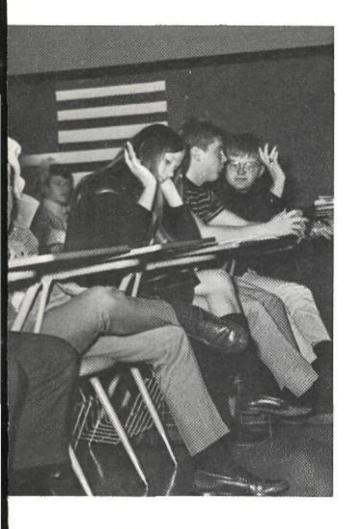

Jack Neely Vice-President

Penny Reeves Secretary-Treasurer

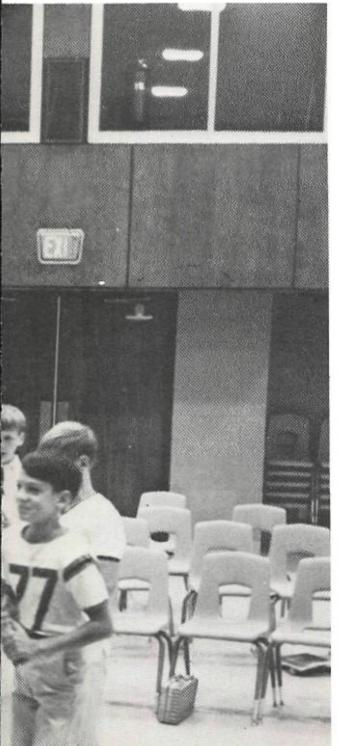

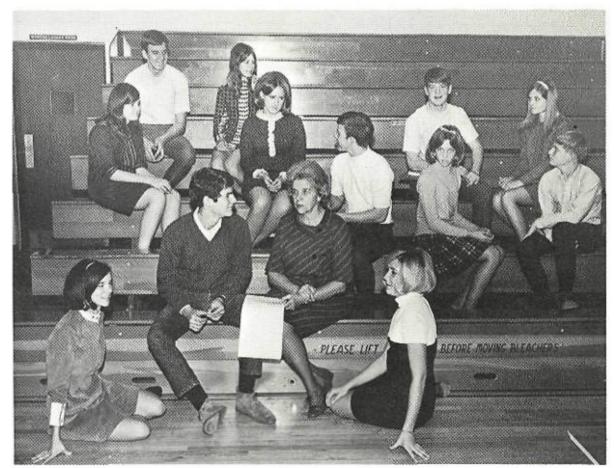

Marti Rosen Assemblies Commissioner

Student Government Builds Tomorrow's Leaders

"Meeting Come to Order"... seventh grade coke party... 8 o'clock meetings... May I entertain a motion?... hard working officers... committee reports... Motion carries... Is there any further business?... new ideas... hours of planning... Would anyone like to second it?... work... fun... Student Council conventions... reading of the minutes... roll call... Homecoming plans... class reports... let's take a vote... all school dances... promoting school spirit... moments of deep thought... discussing suggestions... getting involved... "Meeting Adjourned"...

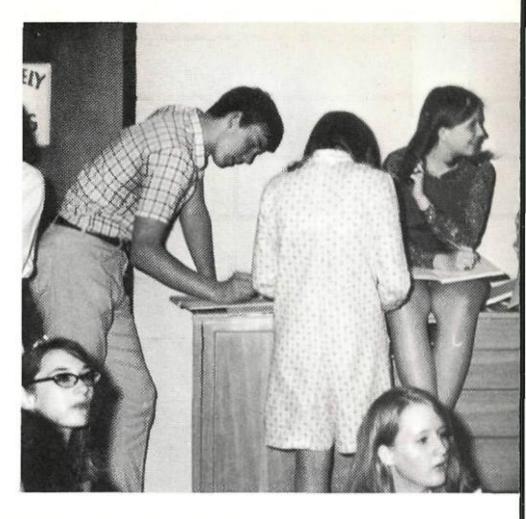

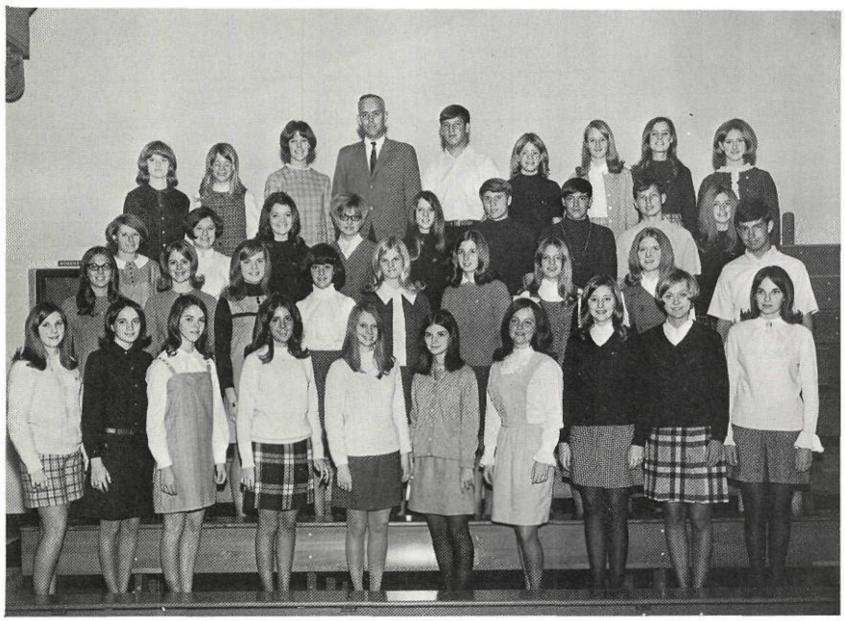

STUDENT COUNCIL ALTERNATES: Left to right, Row 1: Sharon Savage, Brad Thomas, Dr. Grace Gardner, and Susan Barneby. Row 2: Maella Blalock, Anne Wilson, Mike Williams, Susie Mullins, and Bobby Kollmeier. Row 3: Buzz Oatman, Vicki Gleason, Steve Frey, and Andrea Knabb.

Upper left: The "Ayes" have it! (Bryan Luna, Sarah Hopkins.) Opposite: Student Council held an annual coke party for new students and seventh graders. (Brad Bassore, Bryant Brown.)

Capturing A Year For A Lifetime Through Yearbook

Endless work sessions . . . new ideas for writeups . . . candid shots . . . deadlines to meet . . . group pictures . . . Columbia's workshop . . . "Don't pose" . . . idea file . . . rush, rush, rush . . . memories of G.H.S. . . . Tri-X or Plus X? . . . flashbulbs which never go off at the right time . . . new photographers . . . good ole' Annual Day . . . layouts . . . standing on the bleachers . . . looking right into the sun . . . goals . . . traditions . . . taking picture after picture . . . typing carefully on the final copies . . . meetings and excuses . . . counting the times you're in . . . time and effort . . . drawing a tiny crest . . . "will you sign mine?" . . . forty-five space line . . . "I quit!" . . . fighting for pictures at the picnic . . . memories of the passing year . . . the final shipment . . . happiness! . . .

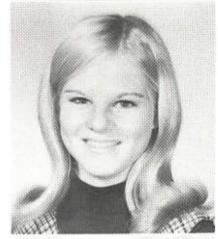

YEARBOOK STAFF: Row I, left to right: Ellen Criswell, Delia Gleason, Mary Haseltine, Penny Reeves, Sara Harper, Elfrieda McCrory, Sandy Potts, Lisa Criswell, Krissie Kieferndorf, and Marti Rosen. Row 2: Joy Petiford, Susie Frey, Janet Robinson, Vicki Simmons, Terry Martin, Cathy Corbett, Susie Farthing, Julie Gilmore, and Monty Morgan. Row 3: Linda Roberts, Suzy Whittington, Caryn Long, Laura Elliot, Sarah Hopkins, Paul Redfearn, Marty Mignard, Eric Ege, and Mary Kay Hawkins. Row 4: Julie Kollmeier, Julie H'Doubler, Lyn Burstall, Dr. James Jester, Mark Ringenburg, Sarah H'Doubler, Charrie Roberts, Jan Wilson, and Anne Wilson.

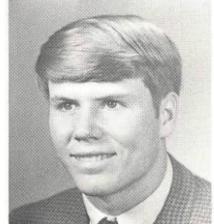

Marti Rosen Editor-in-Chief

Julie Gilmore Associate Editor

Terry Martin Assistant Editor

Lisa Criswell Photography Editor

Paul Redfearn Business Manager

Upper left: Every G.H.S. student waits for annual day eagerly. (Patti Ellis, Charrie Roberts, Inez Tibbits, Buzz Oatman, Ellen Criswell, Julie H'Doubler.) Left: G.H.S. students showed a greater interest in yearbook photography this year. (Marty Mignard and Eric Ege.)

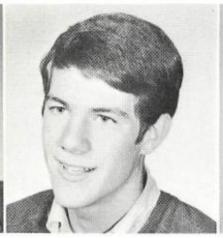

Cub Standard Keeps Students Informe

Krissie Kieferndorf Editor-in-Chief

Anne Wilson Feature Editor

Brad Thomas News Editor

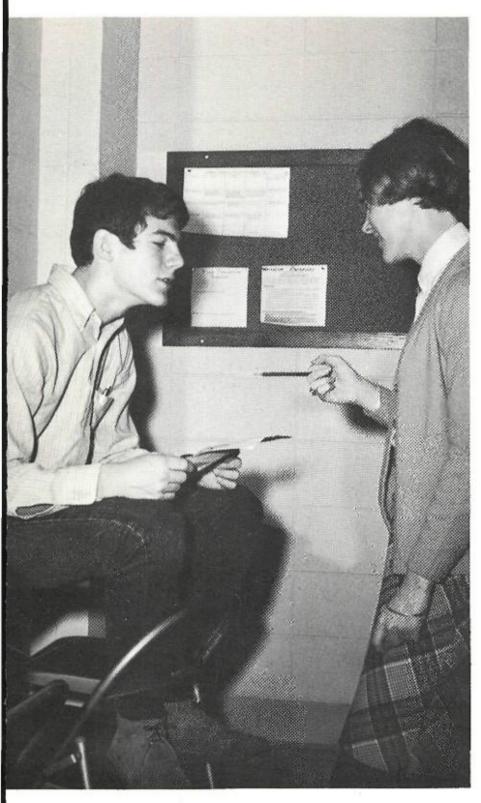

Lyn Burstall Exchange Editor

Mark Ringenburg Sports Editor

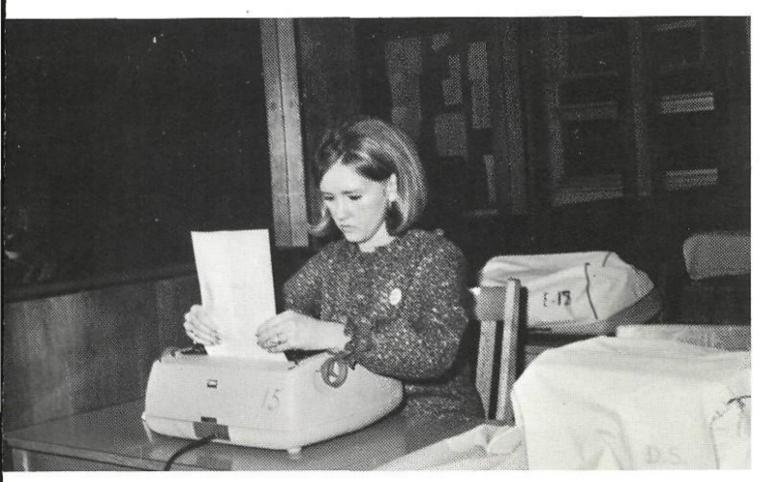

CUB STANDARD STAFF: Row I, left to right: David Bilyeu, Susan Barneby, Mary Haseltine, Joy Petiford, Pen Reeves, Sara Harper, Susie Farthing, Ellen Criswell, Patti Ellis, Brad Thomas. Row 2: Mary Kurtz, Jean Maneke, De Gleason, Susie Frey, Paul Redfearn, Cathy Corbett, Lisa Criswell, Sarah H'Doubler, Linda Roberts. Row 3: Nan Hayes, Julianne Kollmeier, Janet Robinson, Vicky Simmons, Julie H'Doubler, Marilyn Ward, Anne Wilson, Rick Janes Son. Row 4: Krissie Kieferndorf, Eric Ege, Lyn Burstall, Mark Ringenburg, Alice Yancey, Mary Kay Hawkins, Char Roberts, Julie Gilmore, Mr. Baird.

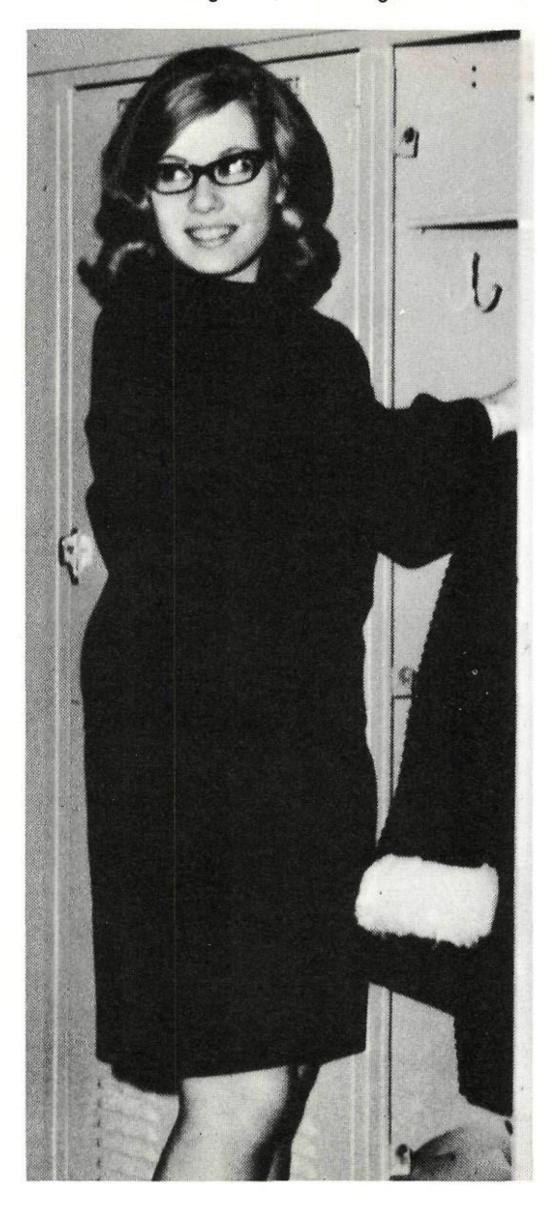

Cub Standard ... deadlines ... secret consultations ... two spaces between each line ... last minute ... pictures of the wrong team's touchdown ... finding people for assignments ... learning to crop ... smeared pictures ... staff meetings ... Which type should be used? ... working together ... lost cartoons ... articles due on Tuesday ... exploding flash bulbs ... searching for new ideas ... staff parties ... typographical errors ... Retype '68 ... ordering the film ... "How many words in this article?" ... numerous trips to the print shop ... Biafra campaign ... decisions, decisions ... squeezing one line ... working out layouts ... waiting till the last minute ... that's censored ... reflections of the world around us ...

Left: Preparation of the newspaper involves exchange of ideas. (Brad Thomas, Krissie Kieferndorf). Below: After layouts are drawn, editors work into the night, typing copy and completing the Standard for printing. (Anne Wilson).

Walk Together, Talk Together . . . Then Shall Ye Have Peace

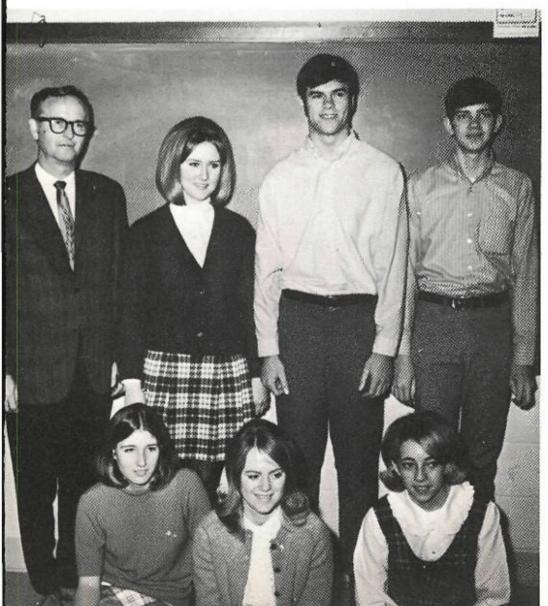

Applications and interviews ... a foreign count ... a new way of life ... different customs . meeting new friends ... exciting travel ... carring your own bags ... overspending your allowance ... going through customs ... writing letter home ... mini skirts ... English accents ... gaing weight ... AFS overnights ... speaking different language ... speeches ... growing u ... a new home ... a second family ... a teart goodbye.

Left: Being AFS student from Bolivia keeps one on the go (Juana Frydman). Above: England was recreated for students during the AFS assembly. (Susie Frey).

ONG SPINNERS: Row I, left to right: Delia Gleason, Krissie Kieferndorf, Linda Roberts, Joy Petiford, Cathy Corbett, haron Savage, Susie Frey, and Beth Ann Whittaker. Row 2: Anne Wilson, Nancy Hayes, Terry Martin, Lisa Criswell, ulie Gilmore, Valerie Flood, Susie Farthing, and Janet Robinson. Row 3: Marilyn Ward, G-g Taylor, Lyn Burstall, Lora tewart, Jan Wilson, Jann Lea, Charrie Roberts, and Mary Kay Hawkins. Row 4: Jimmy Quinn, David Bilyeu, Jack Neely, erry Moore, Loren Robinson, Curt Carr, and Dr. McCurry, sponsor.

TUNE TWISTERS: Top row: Dr. Mc-Curry, sponsor, Anne Wilson, Jack Neely, Loren Robinson. Bottom row: Cathy Corbett, Susie Frey, and G-g Taylor. (Not included in the picture is Terry Moore.)

Song Spinners — Tune Twisters Increase Vocal Skills

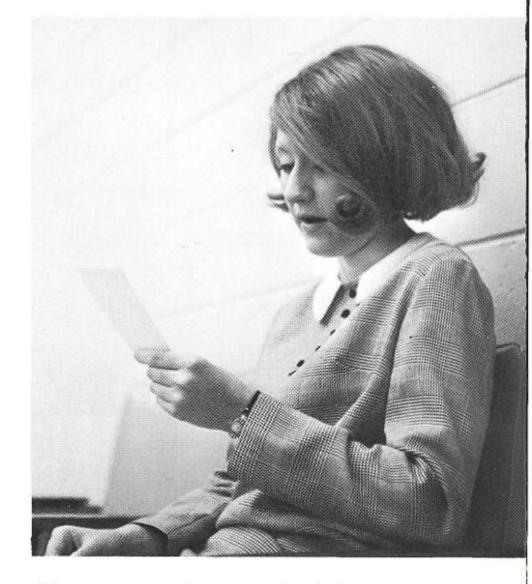

Greenwood speechies do their own thing. Self-expression is the formula for success. On to victory! (Anne Wilson, Brad Thomas Dwain Conkright, Susie Frey, Krissie Kieferndorf, Lyn Burstall).

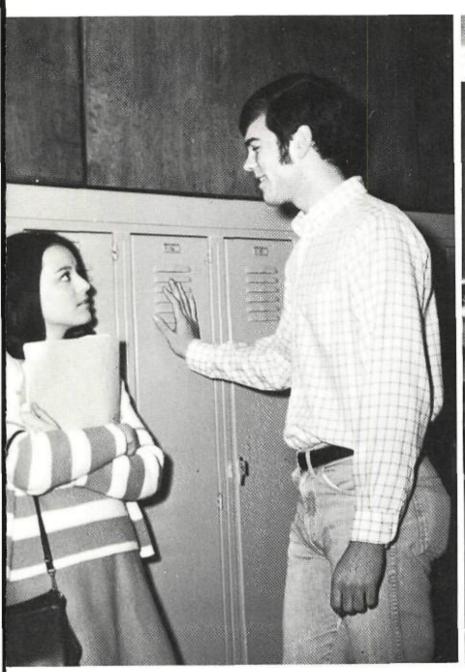

Speech!

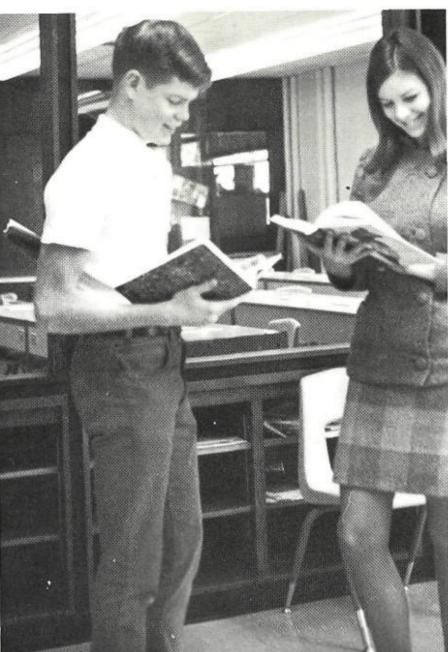

The Key To Communication

Writing an intro the night before ... memorize ... memorize ... "Where's my little black book?" ... butterflies in the stomach ... finding a duet partner ... stuttering ... not finding your room ... only one week left to practice ... meeting new people ... ad lib ... "Look who I'm against in first round!" ... posting finals ... panic ... spending the night in Neosho ... looking at the trophies ... countless practices ... extemp files ... sorting magazines ... early morning assemblies ... forgetting your dramatic in the middle ... achieving a goal and a trophy ...

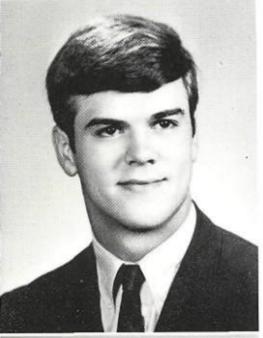

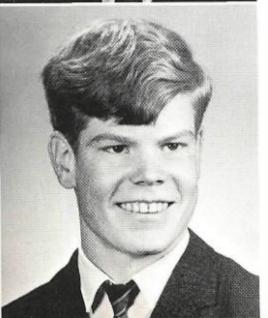

Extemporaneous speaking requires fast thinking. Just a few notes on card may make a prize-winning speech. (Linda Roberts).

Above: Greenwood's 1969 valedictorian finds time to talk in the halls. (Jack Neely, Val Flood). Above right: Dialogues in French improve accents. (Pat Tibbits, Jann Lea).

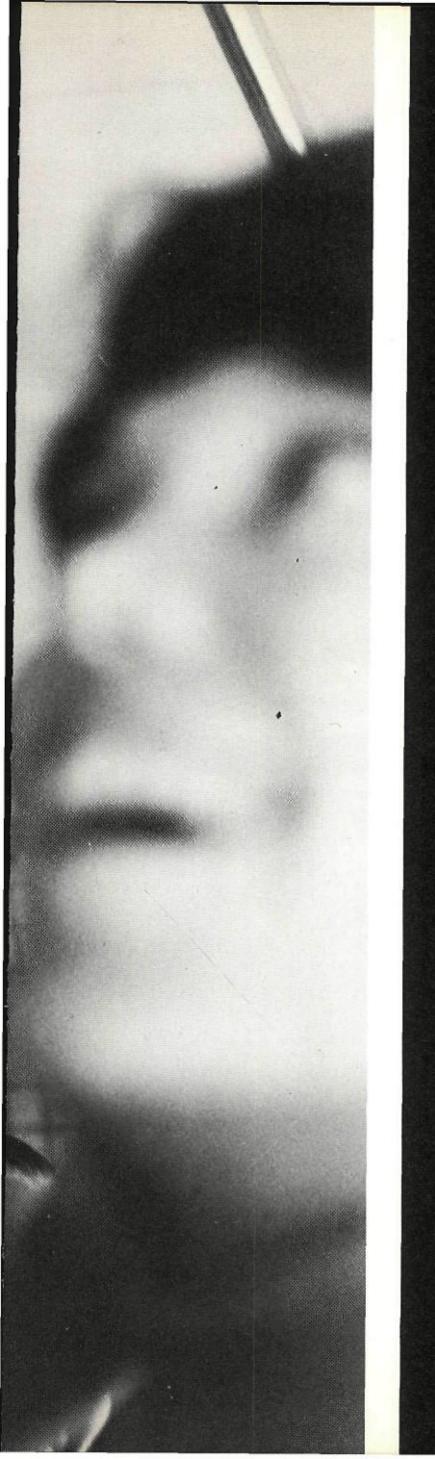

Rewards Are Received For A Job Well Done

Scholarships ... hard work ... ruining the curve and everyone else's grades ... smart ... National Merit winners ... concentration ... computers ... brains ... a choice of college opportunities ... studying ... leading the senior class by their ranking ... knowing everything? ... happiness is a perfect paper ... serious ... lots of reading ... Curator's Certificate ... honors ... brain trust ... intellectuals ... honor day ... straight A's ... asking a question that the teacher can't answer ... developing various interests ... making plans for a bright future ...

Above left: Jack Neely, Valedictorian. Left: Pat Tibbits, Salutatorian.

STUDENTS

Just drops in the great boundless motion of the sea But it seems that some of the drops sparkle . . . Some of the drops do sparkle . . . T. H. White

Just Been Somewhere Great . . . Going Somewhere Bette

Being the youngest at Greenwood's all school dances ... looking up to the seniors ... meeting new people ... learning your way around ... you own football and basketball teams ... decorating the halls ... participating in student council for the first time ... electing class officers ... doing homework ... changing classes ... curiosity ... Mr. Hoggard ... living without recess ... electing cheerleaders ... learning ... new subjects and teachers ... Missouri notebooks ... taking of added responsibilities ... a new beginning ...

Brad Bassore John Boyts Jean Paul Bradshaw Jan Gerwert

Officers and class sponsor: Donald Myears, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Hoggard; Bobby Harmon vice-president; and Chuck Tillman, president.

Bryant Brown Mike Gerwert

Teresa Calbert Mary Gilbert

Mark Chamberlin Vicki Gleason

Cissy Davis Fred Groce

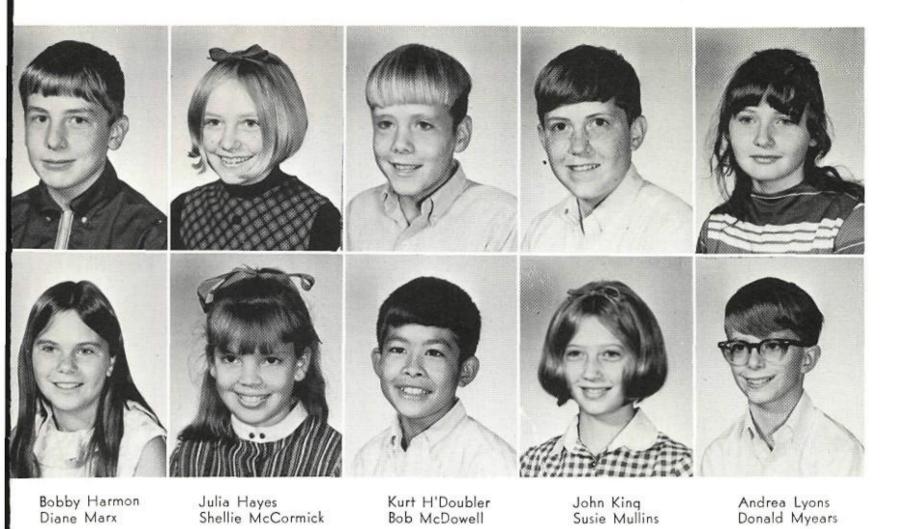

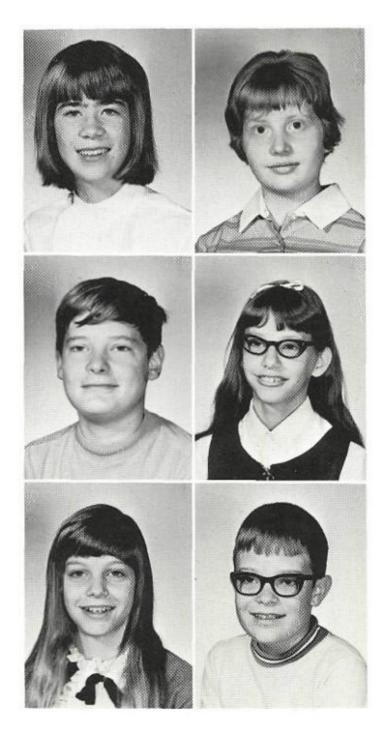

Accepted by the second of the

Along with the added fun of seventh grade comes the added homework. (Cissy Davis, Andrea Lyons).

Susan Turner

Tim Turner

Mark Rich Stephanie Strong

Nanette Philibert Teresa Phillips

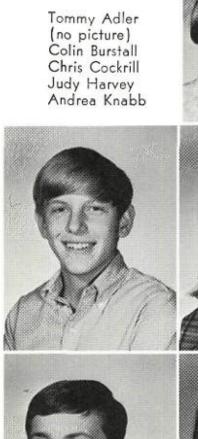

Julie Bockhorst Cynthia Chalfant Sarah Downing Mark Haseltine Bobby Kollmeier

Watching films in English helps further reading skills and increase reading speed. Here students are giving their attention to a film on a famous author they are studying. (Joni Simmons, Carol Morris).

Peter H'Doubler Paul Liepman

Mark Hopkins Mike Magers

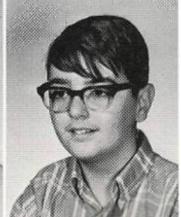

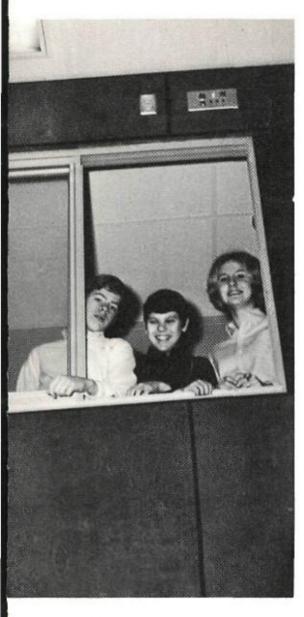

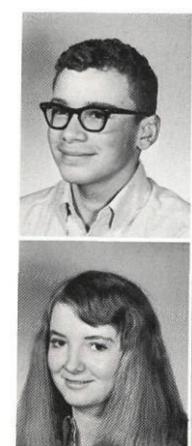

uring The Year

Above: Officers of the eighth grade are really at the top of the class. (Mark Haseltine, Mark Hopkins, Cindy Heter).

Mike Schneider Becky Sullivan

Susan Matthews Debbie McDowell Carol Morris Jeff Shryer Chuck Tegler

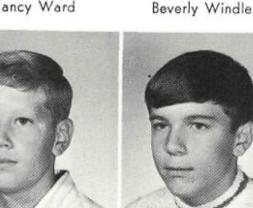

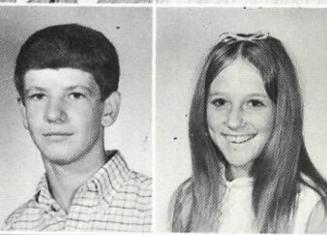

Eighth grade! ... new experiences ... new responsibilities ... basketball ... football ... track ... practice, practice, practice ... happiness ... cheerleading ... tournaments ... more freedom ... spring drum corps tryouts ... class parties ... knowing what to do on registration day ... Christmas baskets ... decorations ... Homecoming ... fun ... talent shows ... fashion shows ... hard work ... student council ... cookie sales ... laughter ... Latin word banks ... no more Missouri notebooks! ... almost in high school ... second lunch period ... eighth grade is all right! ...

Paul Roberts

Gail Smith

Paul Mullins Joni Simmons Nancy Ward

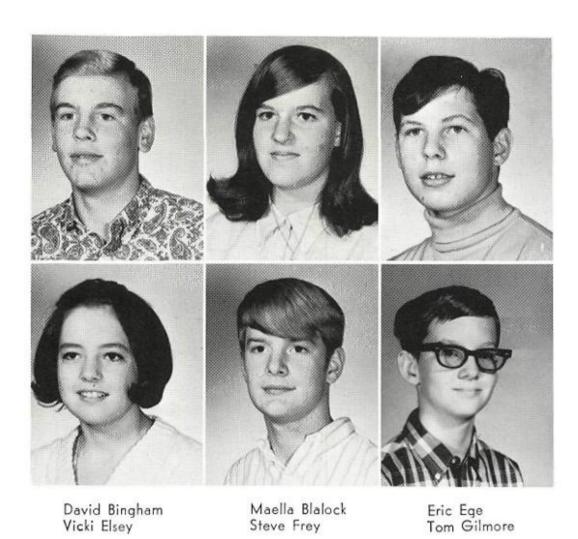

Gary Herrick Barbara Martin

Mary Kurtz Cheryl Martino

Bryan Luna Sharon Martino

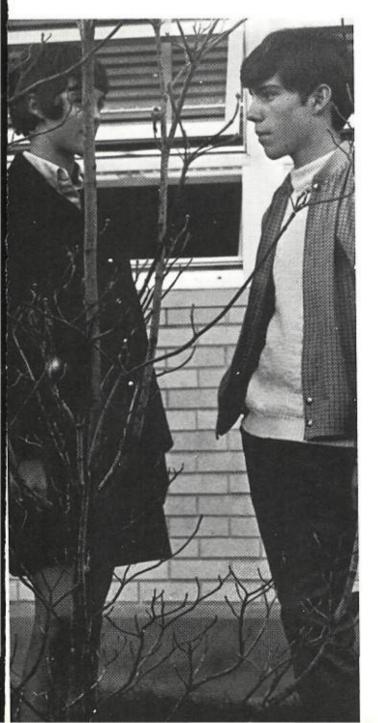

Bob Mace Mark Meyer

Jean Maneke Ginah Mortensen

Ann Neely Nancy Petiford

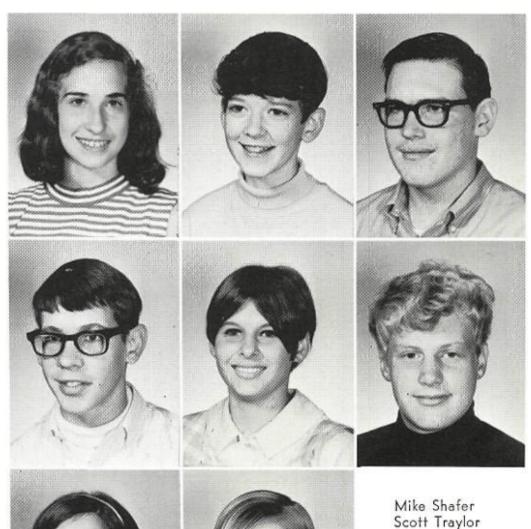

Stan Payne Suzanne Philibert

Left: Officers: Barbara Martin, treasurer: Nancy Petiford, secretary: Eric Shryer, president: Bryan Luna, vice-president. Below: Greenwood's front lawn provides a great place to talk. (Ann Neely, Gary Herrick).

Ninth Grade — The First Of Many Steps

Being in Drum Corps ... finally in senior high ... a trip through Hades ... being allowed to go to the Homecoming dance ... junior varsity sports ... being sold as a slave ... grades go on your permanent record ... lots of homework ... pep rallies ... hope for the oncoming years ... the first year in chorus ... Mrs. Rice's Latin ... counting credits for graduation ... moving up a step in life ... Algebra ... working out your schedule ... actually studying in study hall ... pop tests ... decisions, decisions ... class parties ... functional science ... achievement tests ... civics ... being on newspaper and yearbook staffs ... being last in the Drum Corps picnic ... wishing you were a senior ... or even a sophomore ...

Jeanne Picotte Eric Shryer Cathy Wilson

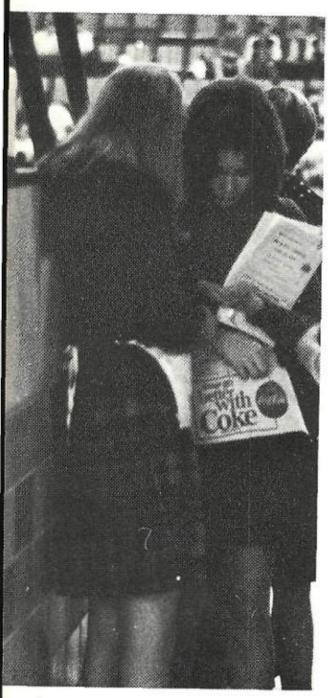

David Robinson Lynn Thomas Tom Wootton

Sophomores

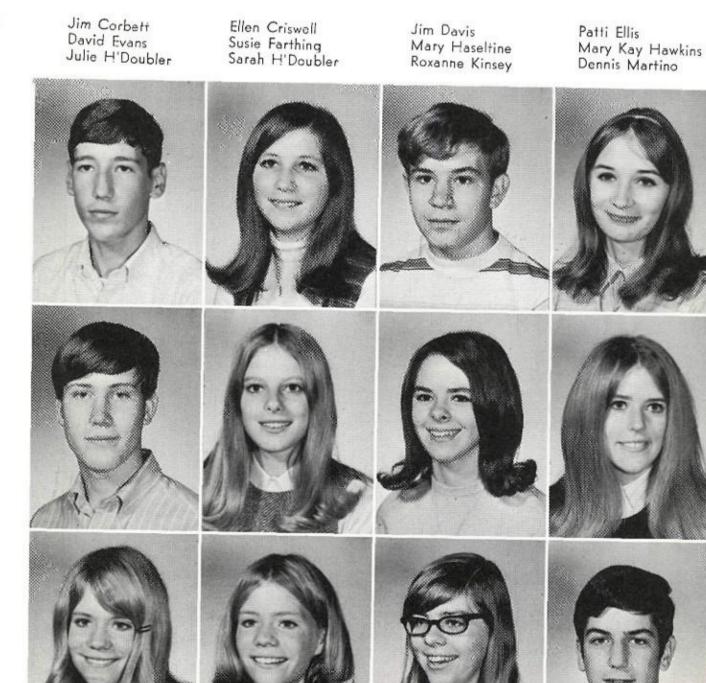

Though Sophomores are usually hard at work earning money, they also have time for fun at a class party. (Joe Millsap and Mary Haseltine).

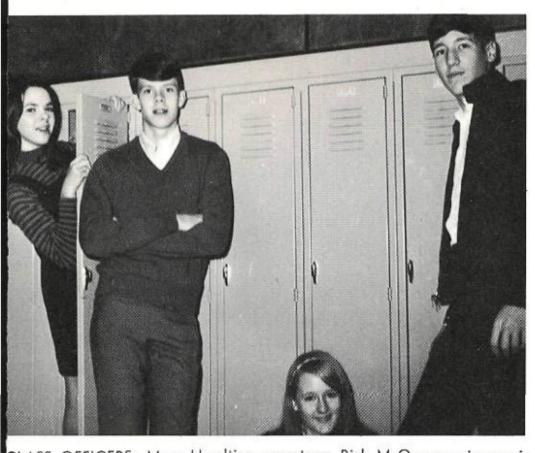

Set Record On Blue And Gold Sales

Blue and Gold Tournament ... active in school life ... World History ... selling advertisements ... work on layouts ... girls in Drum Corps and cheerleading ... going to the printer ... working on class decorations ... Sophomore Pilgrim ... selling programs ... running out of programs and making more ... class parties ... Lorge-Thorndike test ... over $700 made ... money for the Junior-Senior Prom ... a success ... speeches to give in English ... pride in class projects ... getting advice from Mr. Moore ... masters instead of slaves ... much hard work ... cookie sales ... earning money ... participation in sports ... more responsibilities ... goals ... planning for the future

A moment to count the change and then back to work. (Charrie Roberts and Inez Tibbits).

CLASS OFFICERS: Mary Haseltine, secretary; Rick McQueary, vice-president; Charrie Roberts, president; and Jim Corbett, treasurer.

Sharon Savage G-g Taylor Chris Wheat

Greg Shryer Inez Tibbits Beth Ann Whittaker

Stanley Smith Marilyn Ward

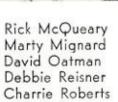

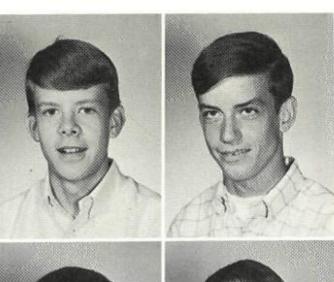

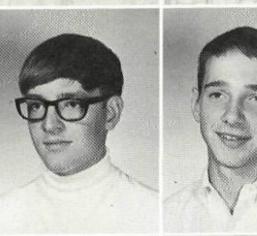

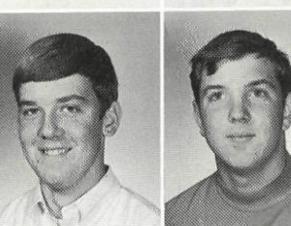

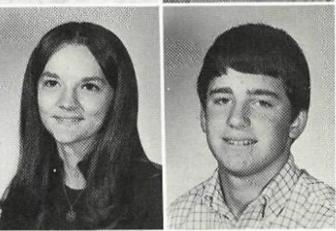

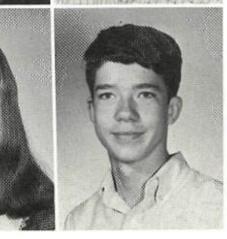

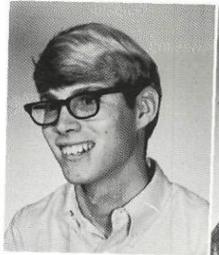

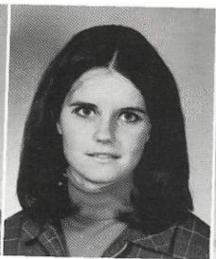

Paul Meyer Joe Millsap Jim Quinn Steve Rich Phil Robertson

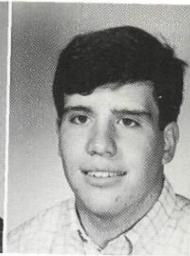

Susan Barneby

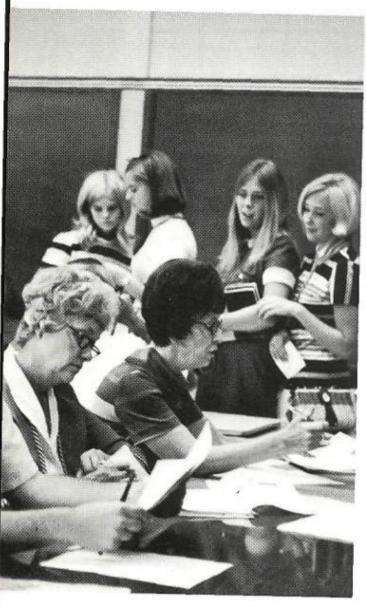

Barbara Breuer

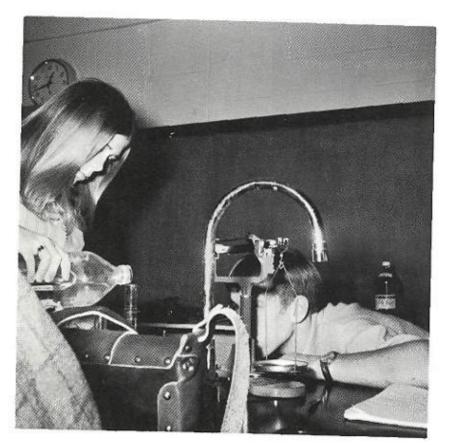

Curt Carr

Unified Effort Provide

Juniors get ready for a busy year ahead as registration begins school for the coming season. (Terry Martin, Alice Yancey, Lora Stewart, and Susan Barneby).

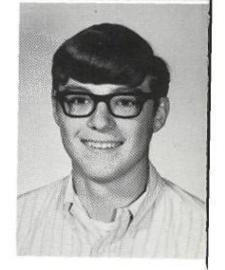

Finally joining the ranks of "upper classmen" ... concession stands ... first year to go to the Prom ... monthly money making projects ... Saturday morning clean-up after football games ... decorating for Honor Day ... Mr. Kinsey we need ... planning the Prom ... cookie sales ... earning lots of money ... driving in the car caravan ... candy bars ... assistant yearbook and newspaper editors ... majorette ... pie suppers ... hard work ... varsity sports ... finally finishing taking all required classes ... Constitution test ... ice cream social ... class rings ... first prize for Homecoming decorations ... student body elections ... PSAT test ... the last time to do things before you have to do them for the last time ...

These two junior chemistry students must learn the meaning of accuracy in lab. (Lora Stewart and Walter Powell).

Lisa Criswell Steve Curtis Ronnie Dutton

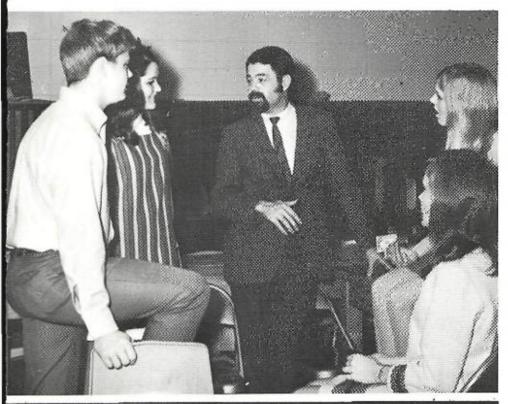

Laura Elliott

Bob Fleming

Elizabeth Harris

Nancy Hayes

Best Prom Ever

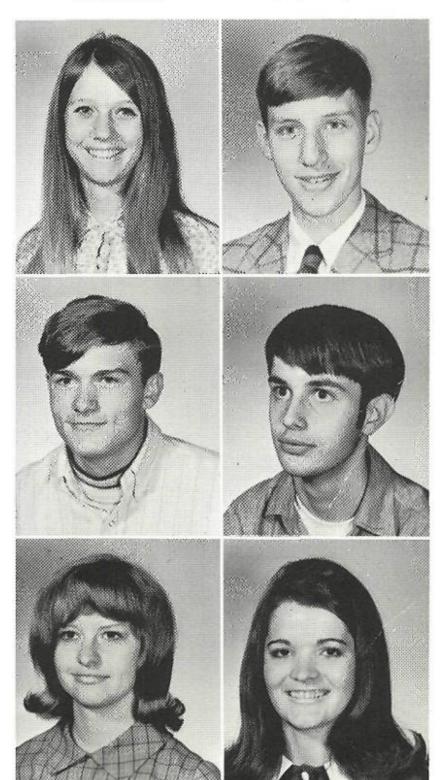

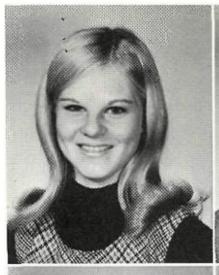

Above: CLASS OFFICERS AND SPONSOR: Steve Stombaugh, vicepresident; Caryn Long, president; Mr. Kinsey; Terry Martin, treasurer; and Janet Robinson, secretary. Below: Lunch provides a time to relax petween classes. (Steve Stombaugh, David Ball, and Rick Jackson).

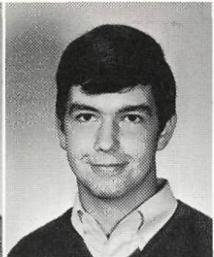

Sarah Hopkins Steve Jett Juli Kollmeier

Rick Jackson David Kirkpatrick Caryn Long

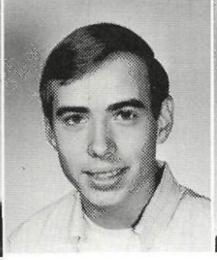

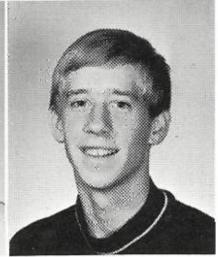

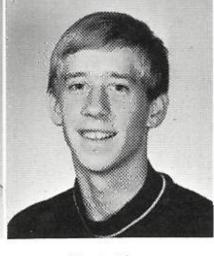

Steve Payne

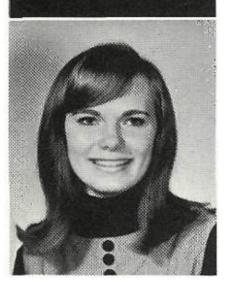

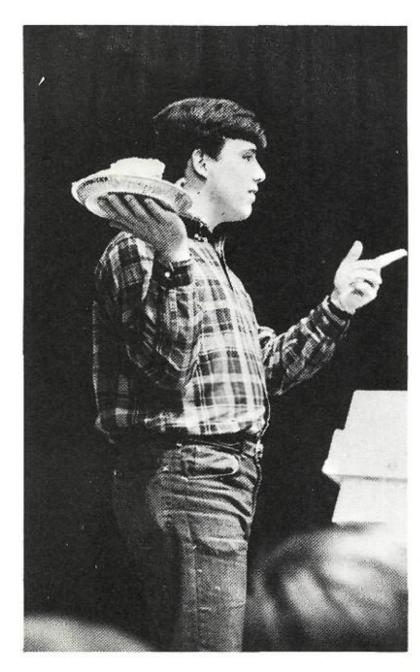

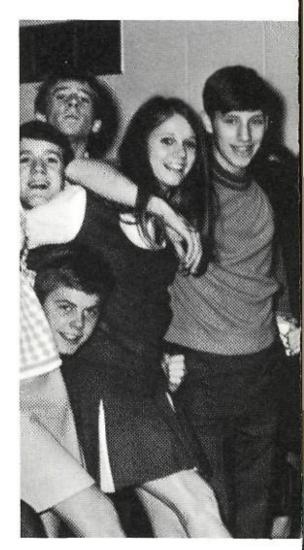

Terry Martin Pat Penn Mark Ringenberg Janet Robinson

Left: Going once, going twice, sold the boy in the raccoon coat! Cake sa are a good way to make money. (Co Carr).

Vicky Simmons

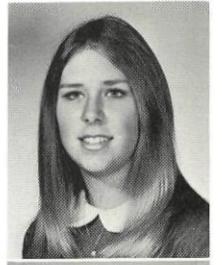

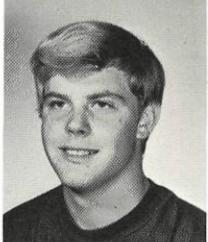

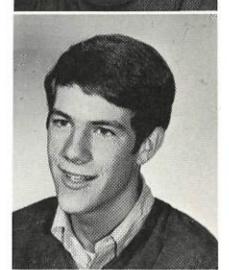

Juniors Top Seniors In Homecoming Decorations

Lora Stewart Steve Stombaugh Brad Thomas Alice Yancey

Left: Hard-earned Junior money is spent on flowers for Honor Day. (David Ball, Jan Wilson, Mark Ringenberg, Nancy Hayes).

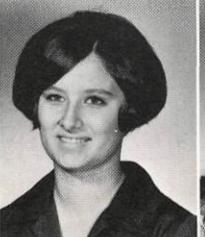

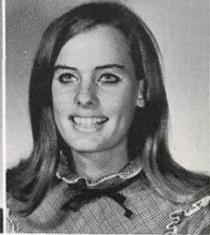

bove: Junior Power! (Pat Penn, Steve Curtis, Steve Stombaugh, Walter Powell, Sarah Hopkins, ick Jackson, Jan Wilson, Steve Payne, Nancy Hayes, Monty Morgan, Susan Barneby, Ronnie Dutbn, Lora Stewart, Curt Carr, Lisa Criswell, David Ball, Terry Martin).

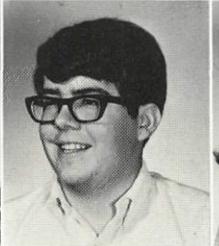

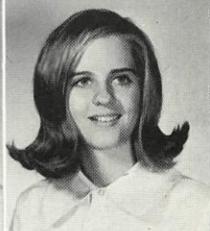

Jan Wilson

Ray Wilson

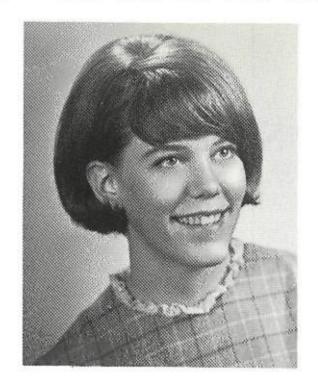

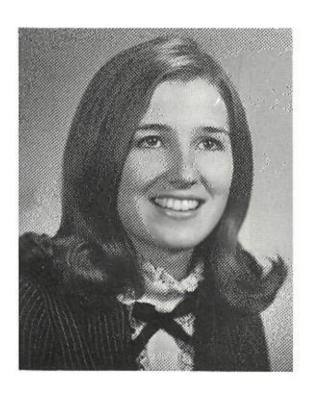

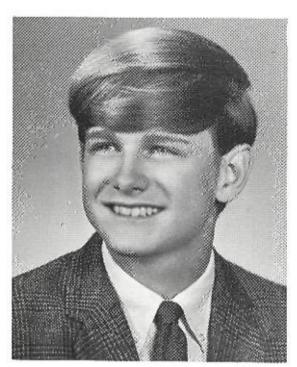

1969 - That Was The Year That Was . . .

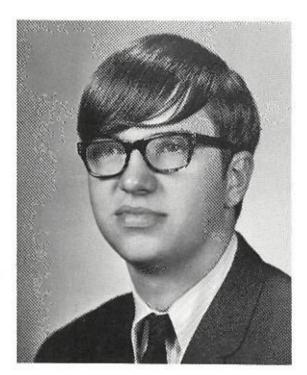

SUZANNE LYN BURSTALL—7*
Departmental Honors in Latin and English,
Scholarship 4, Speech Award 3, "1" Rating at State Dramatics Festival, Song
Spinners 3, Drum Corps Member 4,
French Club President, Cub Standard
Staff 4, Yearbook Staff 4.

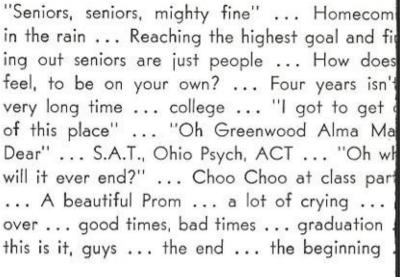

CATHERINE IRENE CORBETT—13
Scholarship 6, Cheerleader "A" 2, "B" 1,
"I" Rating at State Music Festival 2,
Tune Twisters 3, Departmental Honors in Art and Physical Education, Student
Council I, Song Spinners 3, Cub Standard Staff 3, Yearbook Staff 3.

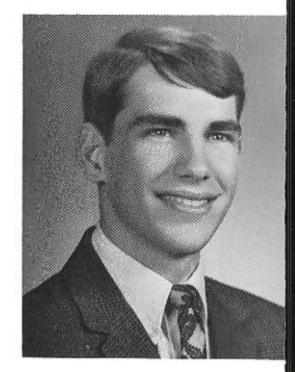

DAVID BILYEU—13
Song Spinners 2, Cub Standard Staff 1.

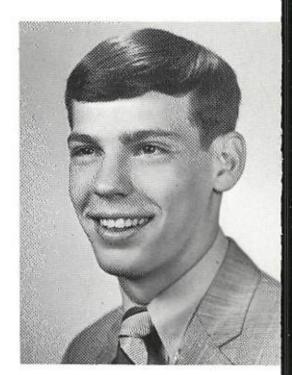

STEVE DARBY-13

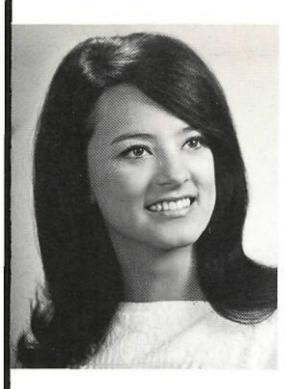

MATTHEW DEAN FAIRLEIGH—II Scholarship 2, Basketball Letterman 2.

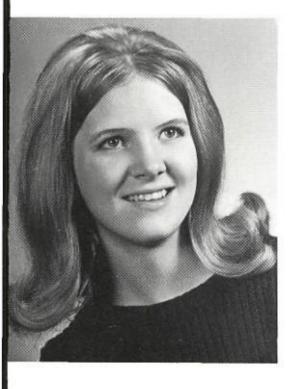

DWAIN CONKRIGHT—13
Football Letterman 2, Golf Letterman
Track Letterman 1, Speech Award
Junior Rotarian, Cub Standard Staff
(no picture available)

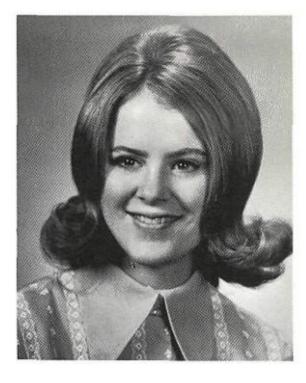

^{*} number of years at Greenwood

VALERIE ANN FLOOD—3 Song Spinners 3.

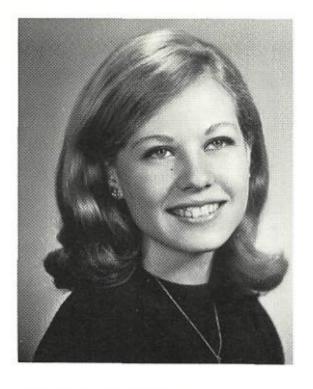

JULIE ANN GILMORE—10
Yearbook Staff 4—Associate Editor, Latin
Club President, Student Council Member I, Drum Corps Member 4, Departmental Honors in Latin, Scholarship 6, Speech Award 3.

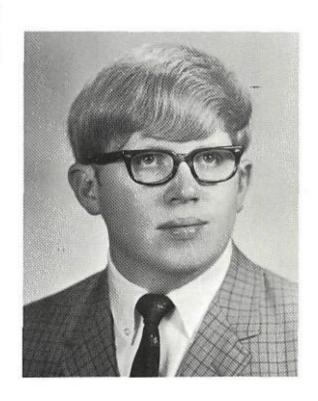

SUSAN ELIZABETH FREY—13
Fair Greenwood, AFS Student, Cheerleader "A" I, "B" 2, Speech Award 3, Scholarship 6, Class President I, Student Council I, Departmental Honors in Physical Education 2, Tune Twisters 3, "I" Rating at State Music Festival, Song Spinners 3, Drum Corps Member 4, Cub Standard Staff 4, Yearbook Staff 4.

DELIA ANNE GLEASON—13
Scholarship 5, Student Council 2, Drum
Corps Member 4, Song Spinners 3,
Cheerleader "B" 1, Cub Standard Staff
3, Yearbook Staff 1.

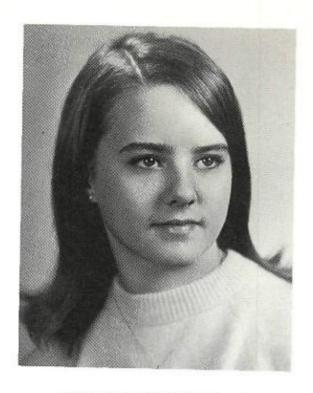

JUANA B. FRYDMAN—I American Field Service Exchange Student, Drum Corps Member I, Student Council I.

DOUGLAS GRANN—2 Junior Rotarian.

Senior boys discuss plans for college. (Don Patterson, Tom Hopkins, Doug Grann, Jack Neely, Mike Williams, and Paul Redfearn.)

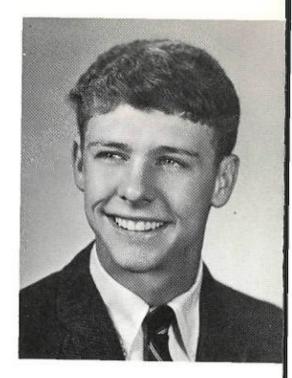

CINDY DORTCH HALL-2

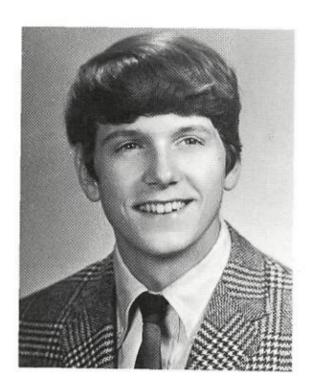

SARA LIZABETH HARPER—13 Cheerleader "A" I, "B" I, Homecoming Attendant, Jay Talk Editor, Student Council Member I, Drum Corps 4, Cub Standard Staff 3, Yearbook Staff 3.

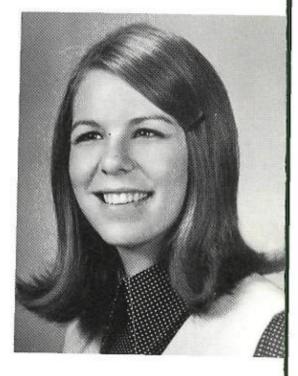

THOMAS CHRISTOPHER HOPKINS-Class President I, Football Letterman Basketball Letterman I, Golf Letterm I, Junior Rotarian.

KRISTINA MARY KIEFERNDORF—13 Cub Standard Staff 3—Editor, Departmental Honors in English, Drum Corps Member 4, Sophomore Pilgrim, Scholarship 3, Speech Award 3, Yearbook Staff 3, Song Spinners 2.

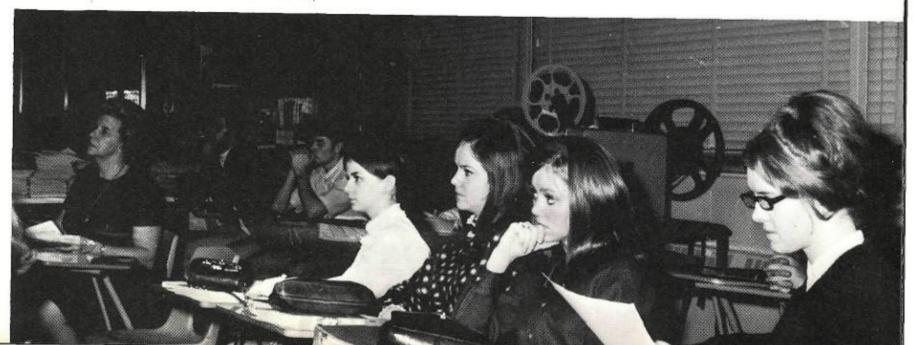

RICHARD ALAN KOCH-2

JOYCE ANNETTE LEA—4
Youth Leadership Award, Scholarship 4
Song Spinners 2, Drum Corps Member
2, Cub Standard Staff 1.

Seniors enjoy movies on Africa in American Problems class. (Dr. Gardner, Terry Moore, Paul Redfearn, Elfrieda McCrory, Sand

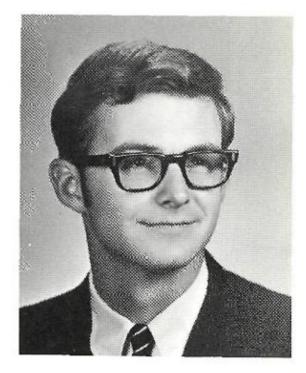

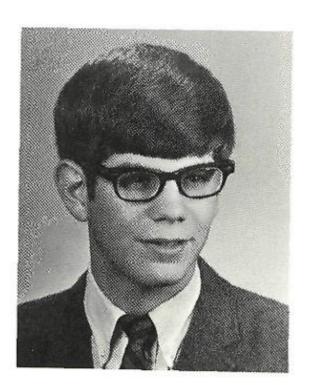

A happy senior face looking forward to things to come. (Sandy Potts).

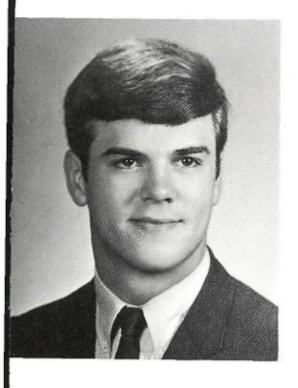

ELFRIEDA McCRORY—2 Yearbook Staff 1.

WILLIAM TERRY MOORE—3
Song Spinners 3, "I" Rating at State
Music Festival, Tune Twisters 2, Football
Letterman 1.

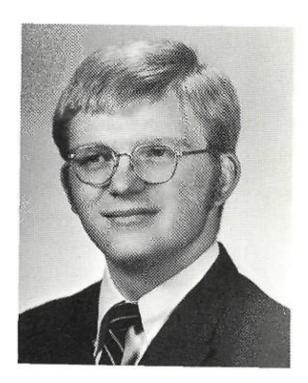

JAMES ANTHONY MARTINO—5 Junior Rotarian.

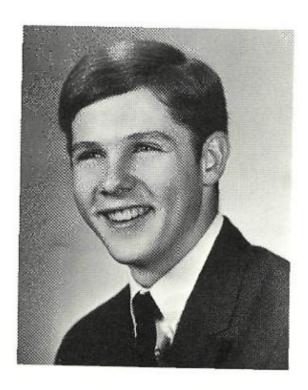

JACK HOWARD NEELY—13

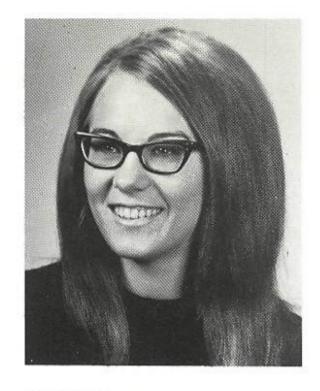

Valedictorian, Sir Greenwood, Student
Council 2, Student Body Vice-President,
Class President 1, National Merit Finalist 1, Scholarship 6, Football Letterman
3—Co-captain, Basketball Letterman 2,
Silver Medal 3, Departmental Honors in Latin, Song Spinners 3, Tune Twisters 1,
Junior Rotarian.

DONALD PATTERSON—2 Student Council Member 1, Junior Rotarian.

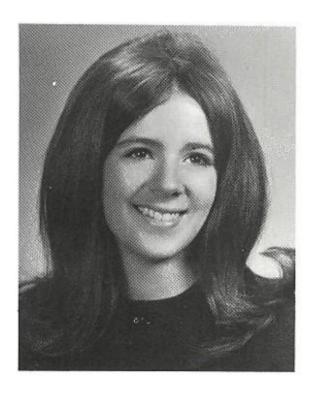

HERMAN AZELL MORRIS III—12 Student Council Member 2, Golf Letterman 3.

JOY PETIFORD—9

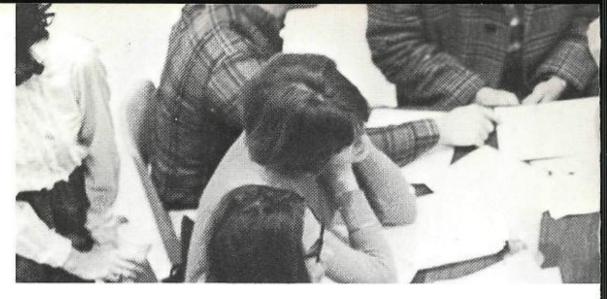

Scholarship 6, Speech Award I, Cheerleader "A" I, "B" I, Drum Corps Major, Drum Corps Member 4, Song Spinners 3, Cub Standard Staff 4, Yearbook Staff 4

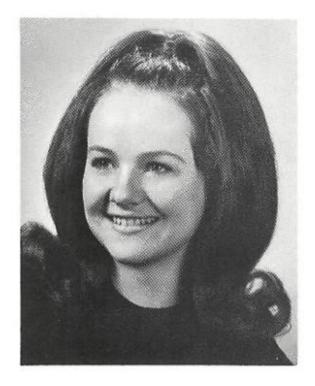

PENELOPE ANNE REEVES—3

Student Council Secretary-Treasurer,
Student Council Member 2, Cheerleader

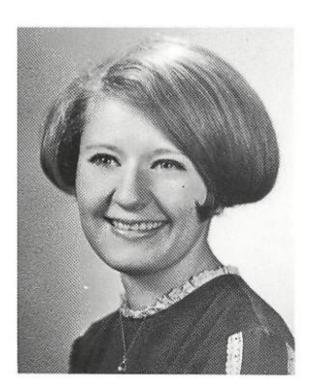

"A" 2, AFS Host Family 67-68, Homecoming Attendant, Drum Corps Member
3, Cub Standard Staff 3, Speech Award
3.

Seniors enjoy each other's company for study. (Lyn Burstall, Joy Petiford

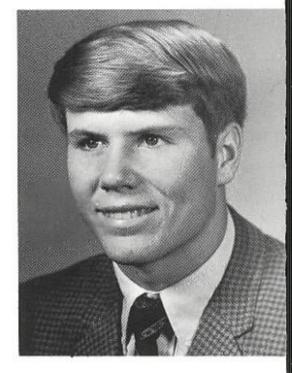

SANDY POTTS—2 Yearbook Staff 1.

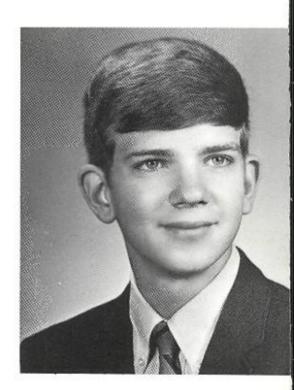

LINDA JEAN ROBERTS—5

AFS Host Family 68-69, DAR Award,
Scholarship 5, Student Council I, Drum
Corps President, Drum Corps Member
4, Speech Award 4, Song Spinners 3,
Cub Standard Staff 4, Yearbook Staff 4.

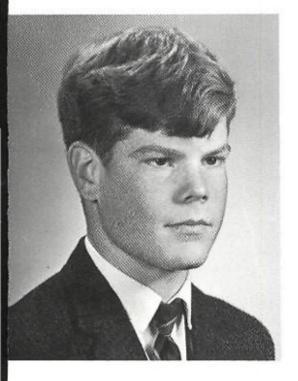

PAUL LESLIE REDFEARN III—12
Student Body President, Student Coucil Member I, Scholarship 2, Speed Collins Medal I, Cub Standard Staff Yearbook Staff I, Departmental Hono in Physical Education, Junior Rotaria Basketball Letterman 2, Tennis Letterma 2, Football Co-captain.

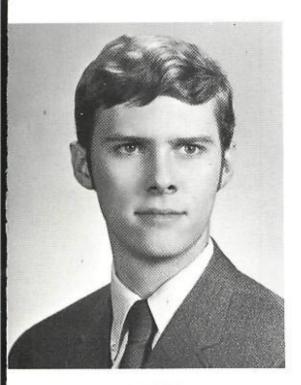

LOREN E. ROBINSON—12 Song Spinners I, Tune Twisters I.

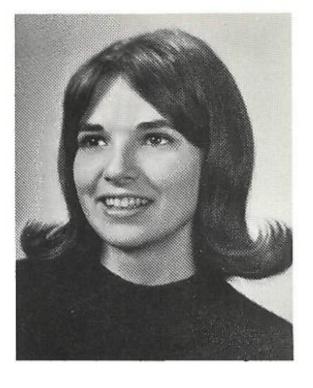

aul Redfearn, Marti Rosen).

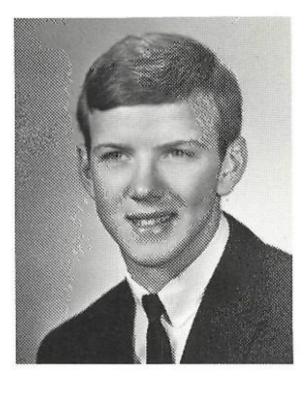

PAT TIBBITS—2 Scholarship 2, National Merit Finalist, Football Letterman 1, Salutatorian.

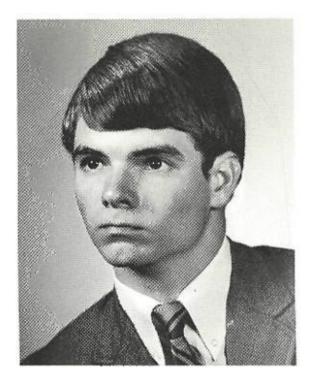

AL WOOTON-I

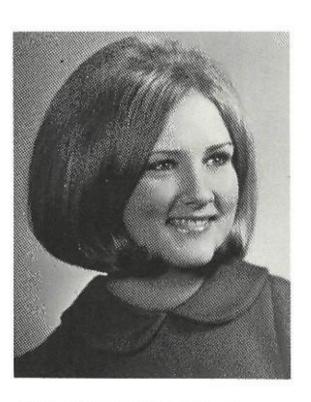

MARTHA ANNE ROSEN—4
Yearbook Staff 3—Editor, Homecoming
Queen, Assemblies Commissioner, Drum
Corps Member 4, Student Council Member 3, Cub Standard Staff 1, Cheerleader "B" 1, Cheerleader Alternate "A"
1, Scholarship 4, Speech Award 3.

MICHAEL ANDREW WILLIAMS—3 Scholarship I, Silver Medal I, Junior Rotarian, Student Council I, Football Letterman 2, Basketball Letterman I, Tennis Letterman 2.

STEVEN HOWELL SHIFLETT-13

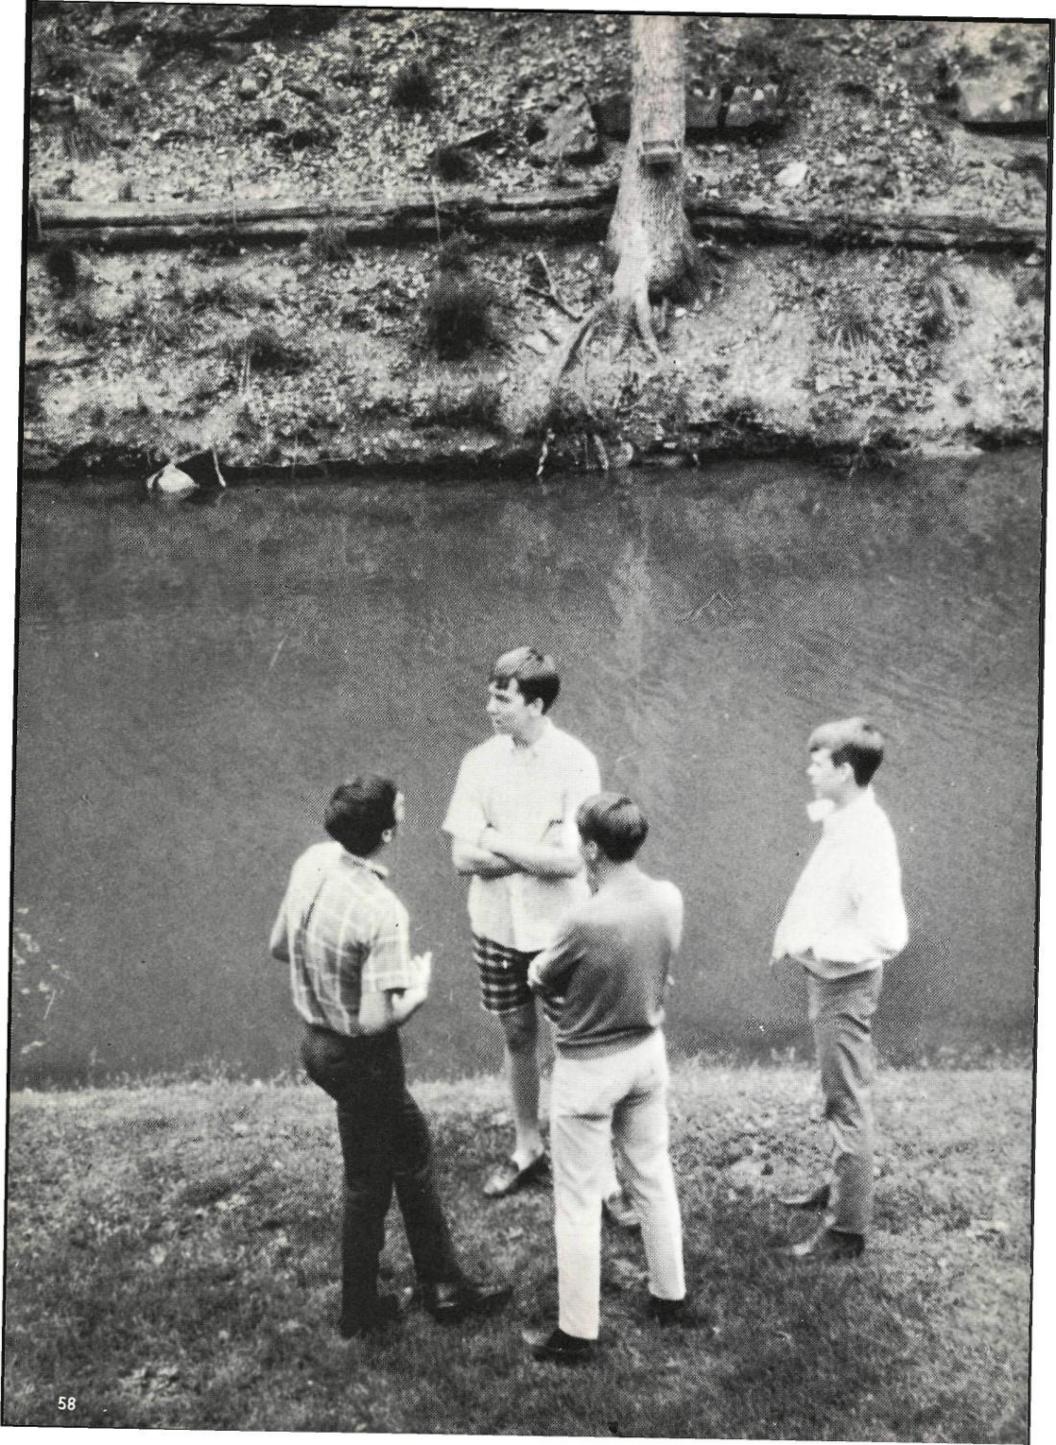

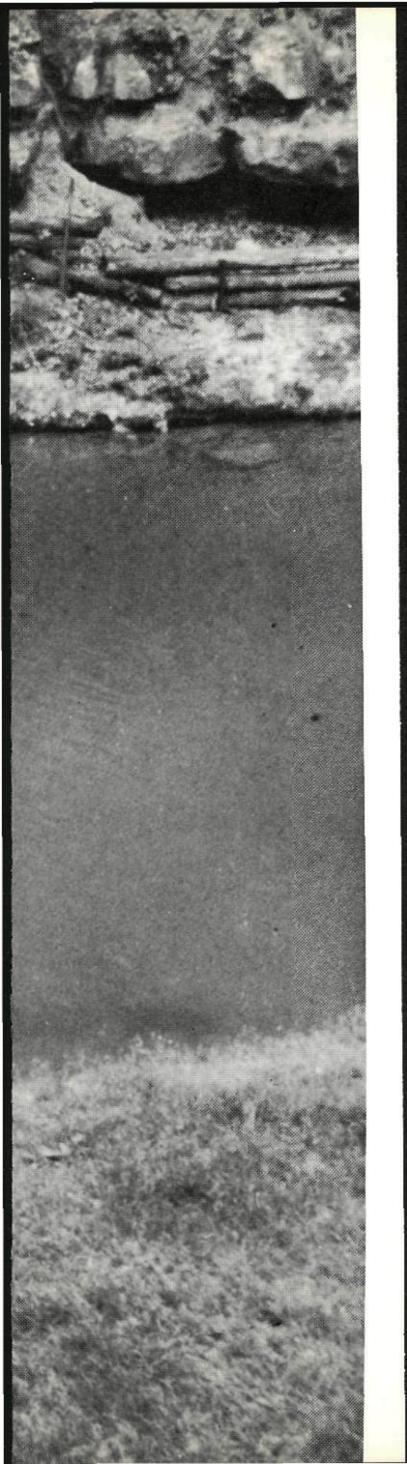

ANNE ELIZABETH WILSON—13

Cub Standard Staff 3, Feature Editor 1, Yearbook Staff 3, Song Spinners 3, Departmental Honors in English 1, Drum Corps Member 4, Scholarship 6, Speech Award 3, Tune Twisters 1.

The senior art class provides freedom of expression. (Doug Grann).

SUMMER

Summer stopped being a yawning gap between the end of school and the beginning of August.

Thomaline Aquallo

Practice . . . Practice . . . Practice . . . Practice . . .

Summer In The City . . . sleeping by the pool . . . waking up to a blistering sun . . . sleeping through Drum Corps . . . trying to find a job . . . getting letters from England . . . learning to ski . . . crabbing at football practice . . . sneaking in the drive-in . . . trips to Silver Dollar City . . . wrecking a Driver's Education car . . . picnics . . . vacation . . . class parties . . . family outings . . . summer school . . . thunderstorms . . . sleeping til noon on Monday . . . finding new friends . . . losing all your money at the fair . . . meeting Dr. Jester . . . trying the slide . . . getting ready for school once more . . .

Opposite: The players rest after a tough practice season. (Pat Tibbits, Steve Payne.) Upper right: Practice makes perfect is the rule at summer Drum Corps practice. (Maella Blalock, Nancy Petiford, Lynn Thomas, Susie Farthing.) Lower left: Attempting the Bugaloo, Mr. Phillips prepares for another swinging year.

Summer Is Forever

Opposite: The SMS pool is a favorite spot for GHS students on a hot summer day. (Tiger Hopkins and Jeff Shryer.) Upper left: Offered for the first time last summer, Sociology proved to be very interesting. (Jann Lea.) Left: The editors cool off for a minute between sessions at the Journalism clinic in MU. (Krissie Kieferndorf, Marti Rosen, Anne Wilson. Bottom: Read the newspaper to keep up on events was the goal of the Newspaper Workshop. (Rick Jackson and Mark Ringenburg.)

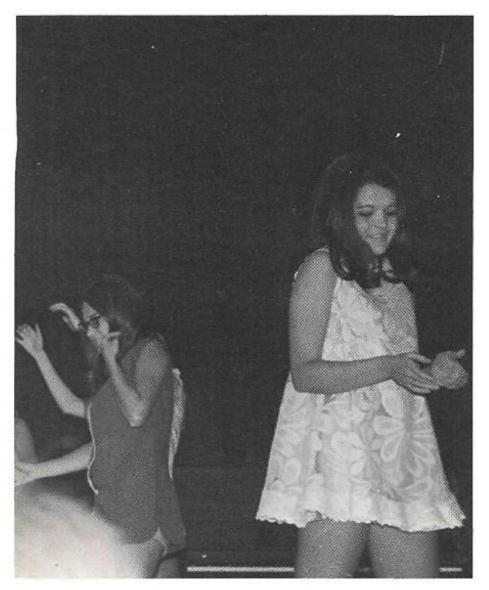

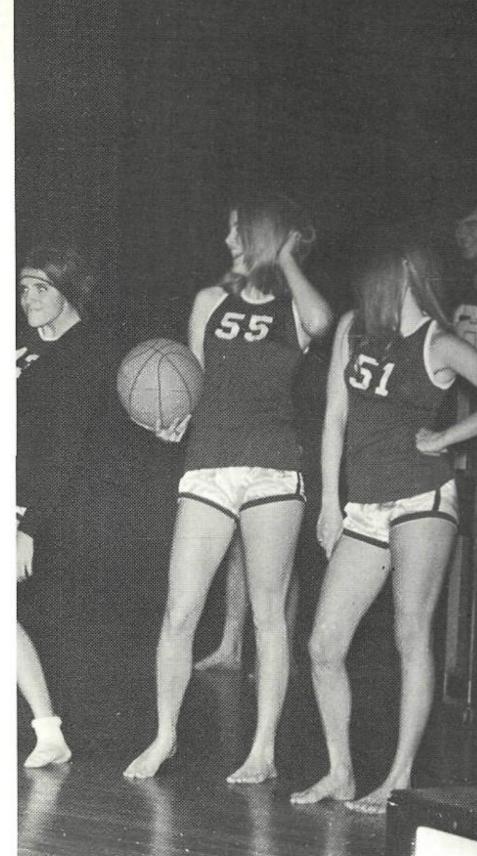

FALL

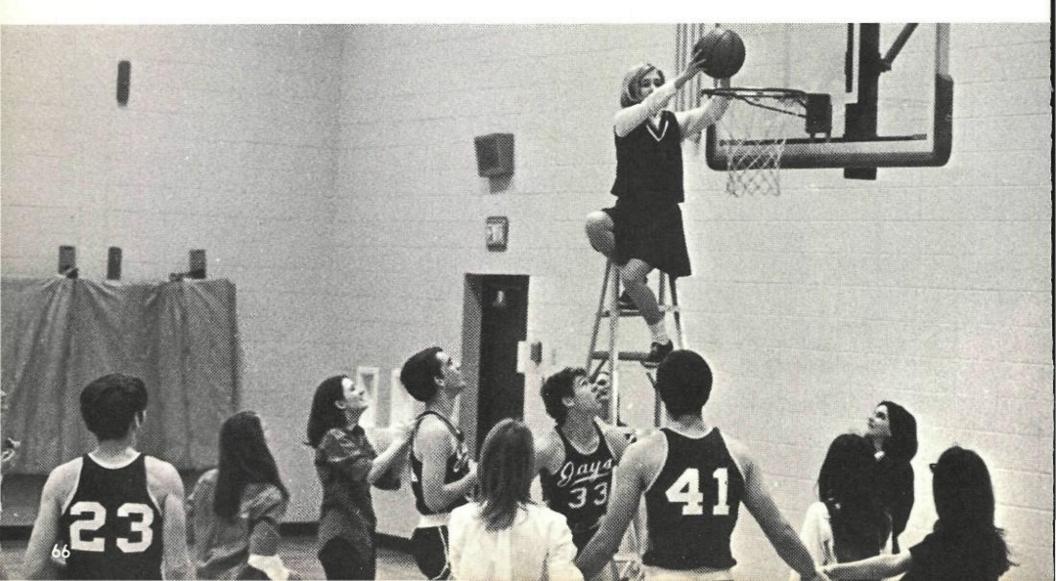

A harvest of change from the outer foliage of beauty to the inner kernel of effort.

Lyn Crosby

Cheerleaders Create Spirit
With Unique Ideas

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: left to right: Cathy Corbett, Penny Reeves. Sara Harper, Susan Barneby, Susie Frey, and Joy Petiford (seated below).

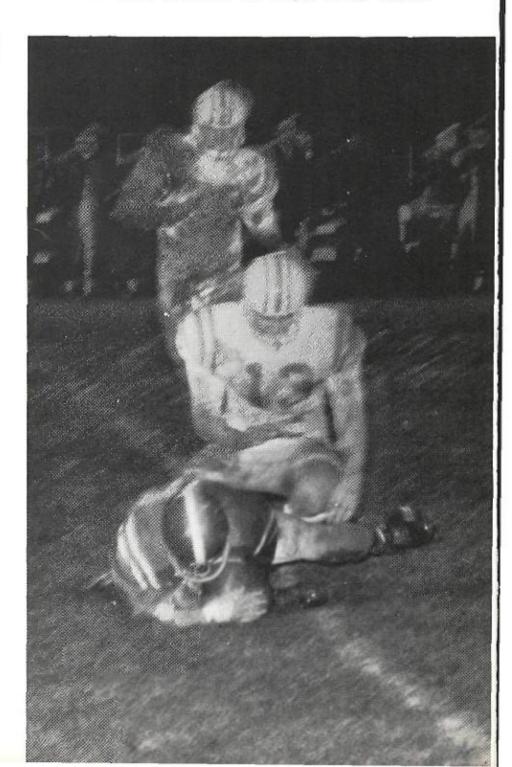

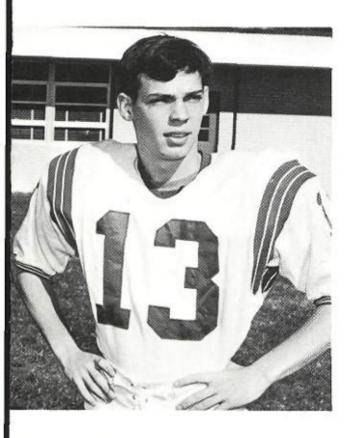

STARTERS: From top, clockwise: Jack Neely, Buzz Oatman, Pat Tibbits, Steve Payne, Larry Pohi Mark Ringenberg Jim Corbett, Mike Williams, Paul Redfearn, Eric Shryer, Walter Powell.

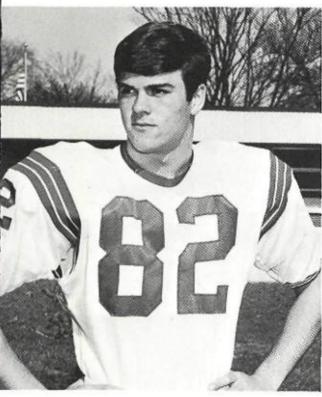

A Pure And Strong Will Is All Powerful

Warm-ups before the game ... jumping jacks ... group leaders ... crabbing ... checking out the other team ... running through the Drum Corps ... Charge! ... a cleat-marked field ... the cheers of the crowd ... last minute instructions ... pep talks ... trying not to slip in the mud ... parties after the game ... catching a long pass ... the thrill of a victory ... the agony of defeat ... memorizing plays ... chalk talks ... "you get the little one on the left" ... Show and Tell ... an all out effort ... winning a letter ... touchdown! ...

Right: Bleary memories of exciting games will never be forgotten by the fans or team.

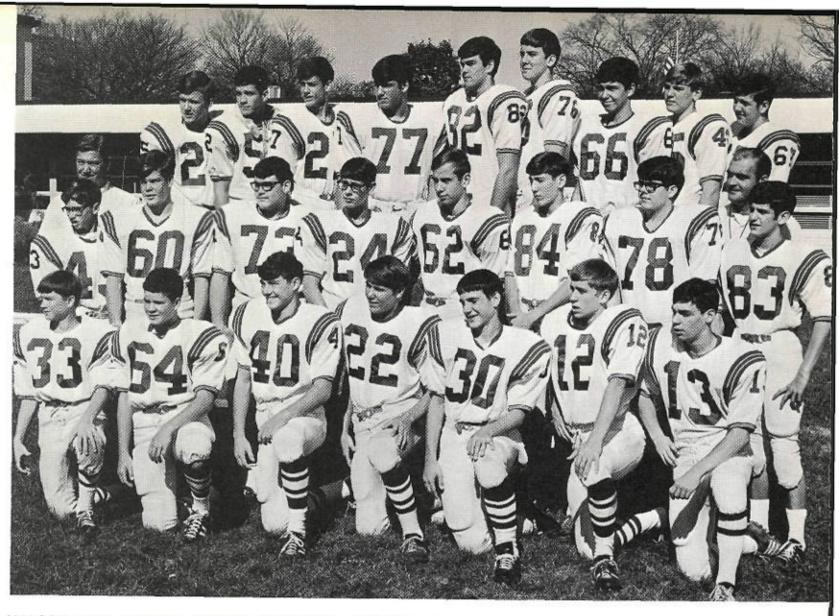

DWAIN CONKRIGHT quarterback JACK NEELY end

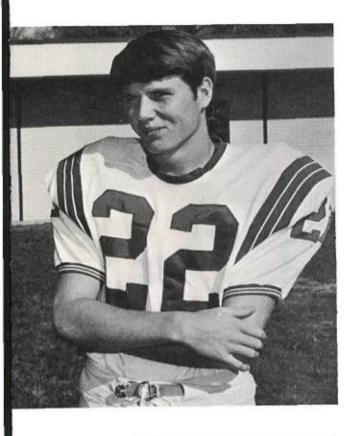

Right: Half the fun of football games are the pie suppers afterwards. (Jim Quinn).

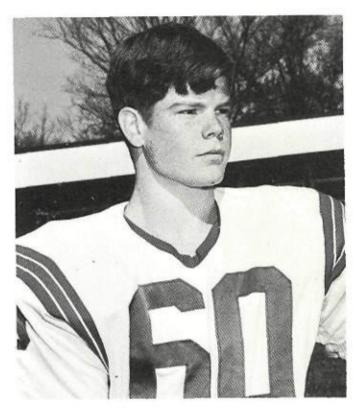

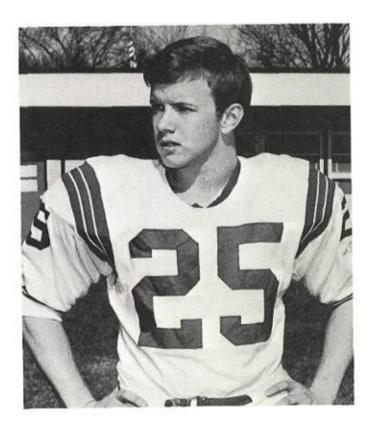

VARSITY AND JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL SQUADS: Row one, left to right: Stanley Smith, Stan Payne, Ronni Dutton, Paul Redfearn, Joe Millsap, Walter Powell, Dwain Conkright. Row two: Bob Mace, Pat Tibbits, Mike Shafe Eric Shryer, Larry Pohl, Jim Corbett, Ray Wilson, Coach Atwood, Dennis Martino. Row three: Coach Mullins, Mike Williams, Steve Payne, Paul Meyer, Mark Ringenberg, Jack Neely, Buzz Oatman, Monty Morgan, David Bingham, Jim Quinr

PAUL REDFEARN PAT TIBBITS MIKE WILLIAMS

fullback guard halfback

Left: The Jays line up for a winning play.

Drum Corps Hosts Tea

DRUM CORPS: Kneeling, left to right: Susie Frey, Sarah Hopkins, Joy Petiford, Janet Robinson, Julie Gilmore, Deli: Gleason. Row 1: Mary Kay Hawkins, Ellen Criswell, Vicky Simmons, Barbara Martin, Sara Harper, Patti Ellis. Row 2 Juana Frydman, Penny Reeves, Linda Roberts, Sarah H'Doubler, Sharon Savage, Gina Mortenson, Lynn Thomas. Row 3 Cathy Corbett, Susie Farthing, Inez Tibbits, Mary Kurtz, Lisa Criswell, Julie H'Doubler, Krissie Kieferndorf, Suzanne Philibert, Mary Haseltine. Row 4: Marilyn Ward, Ann Neely, Charrie Roberts, Jann Lea, Anne Wilson, Lynn Burstall, Jawilson, Terry Martin, and Marti Rosen.

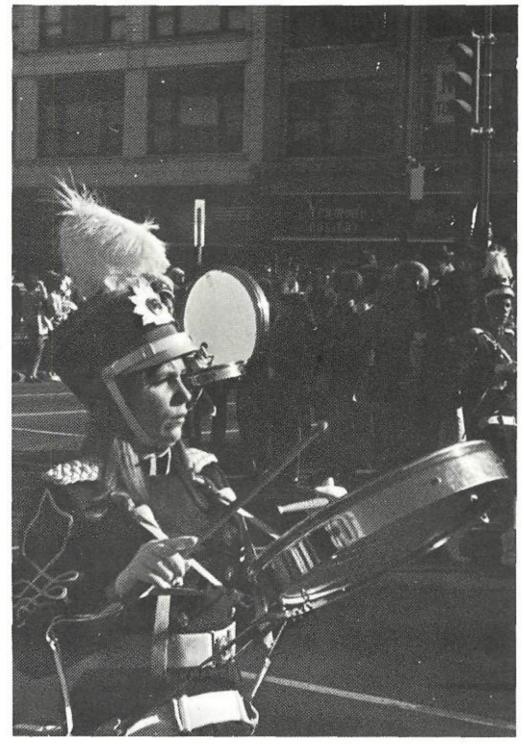

Bugles require extra practice as is found by these Corps members. (Linda Roberts, Sara Harper, and Marilyn Ward).

The goal post provides an excellent vantage point for the Drum Corps major to watch the drills during summer practice. (Joy Petiford).

arly morning practices ... guiding right ... pick o your feet ... texas corners ... learning the gnals ... wet grass on your shoes ... the odd bunds at bugle practices ... aching backs and gs ... nervousness just before a routine ... rum corps meetings after school ... magazine impaigns ... winning a poodle or a snake ... ests during a long parade ... jingling boots ... ying to play a bugle with a frozen mouthpiece ... dressing up for the senior skit ... the Drum orps picnic ... tearful senior speeches ...

The annual Christmas parade is both fun and tiring for all participants, especially Greenwood Drum Corps members! (Ellen Criswell).

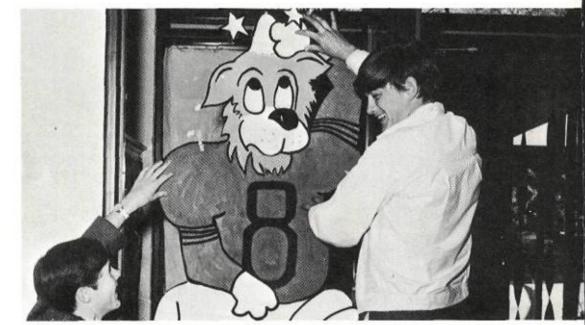

Upper left: Summer drum sectionals can be very tiring, as some stand while others rest when practicing. (Mary Haseltine, Maella Blalock, Lisa Criswell, Suzanne Philibert, Cathy Corbett). Lower left: Drum Corps alternates are shown the signals by the majorette. (Janet Robinson, Maella Blalock, Debbie Reisner, and Nancy Petiford).

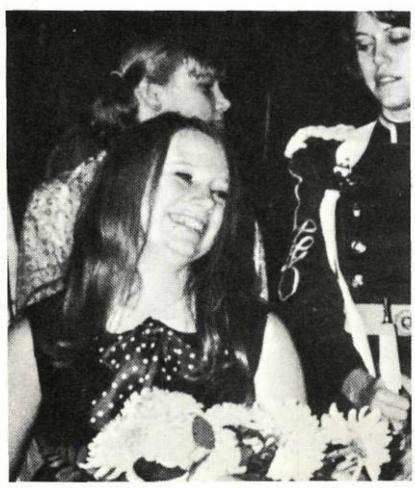

Homecoming '68 . . .

Smiles Through Raindrops

Nothing dries quicker than a tear, nothing last longer than a smile ... Homecoming '68 ... rain rain, rain ... queen elections ... gathering of the alumni ... a house of umbrellas ... bugles playing the Queen's salute in the rain ... a muddy kis ... flashbulbs in the darkness ... victory for the Greenwood Bluejays ...

Right: Seniors work on their prize decorations. (Butch Morris, David Bilyeu). Below, left: A smile is winning. (Sara Harper). Center: A moment of silence is remembered forever. (Marti Rosen). Right: Even rain can't daunt the excitement. (Penny Reeves).

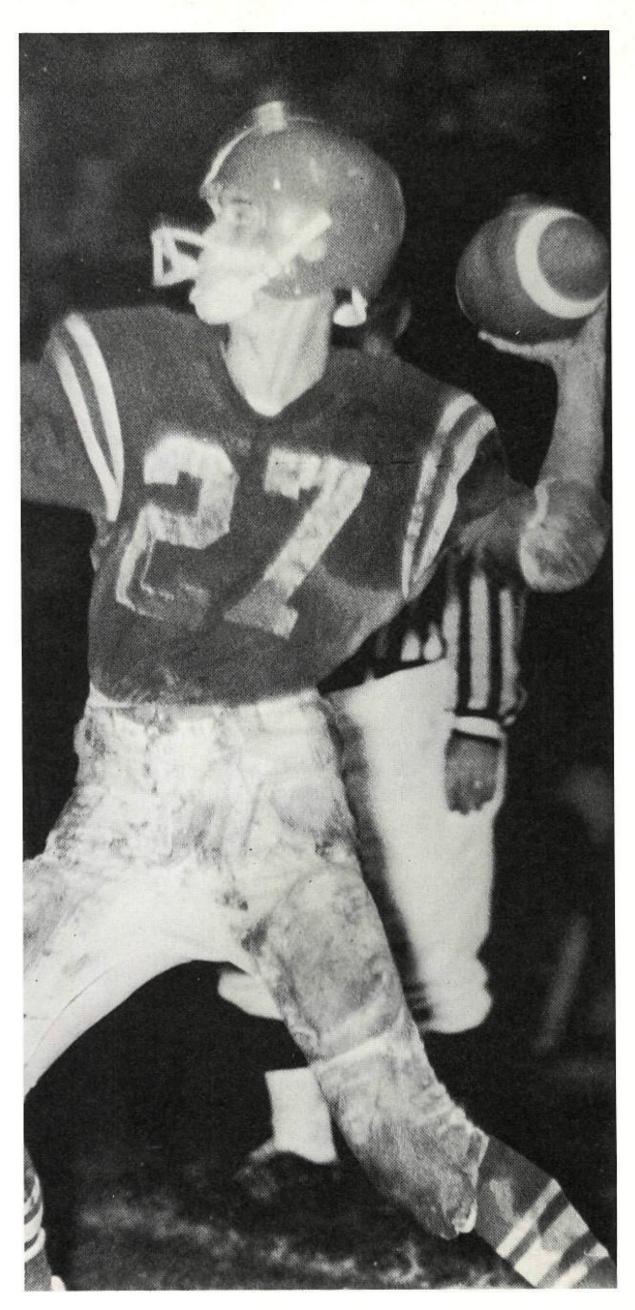

Below: Using the theme, "Beatle-Stockton," Sophomores carry out Homecoming decorations. (Julie H'Doubler and Patti Ellis). Right: A successful pass helps the Bluejays secure a victory from Stockton. (Paul Meyer).

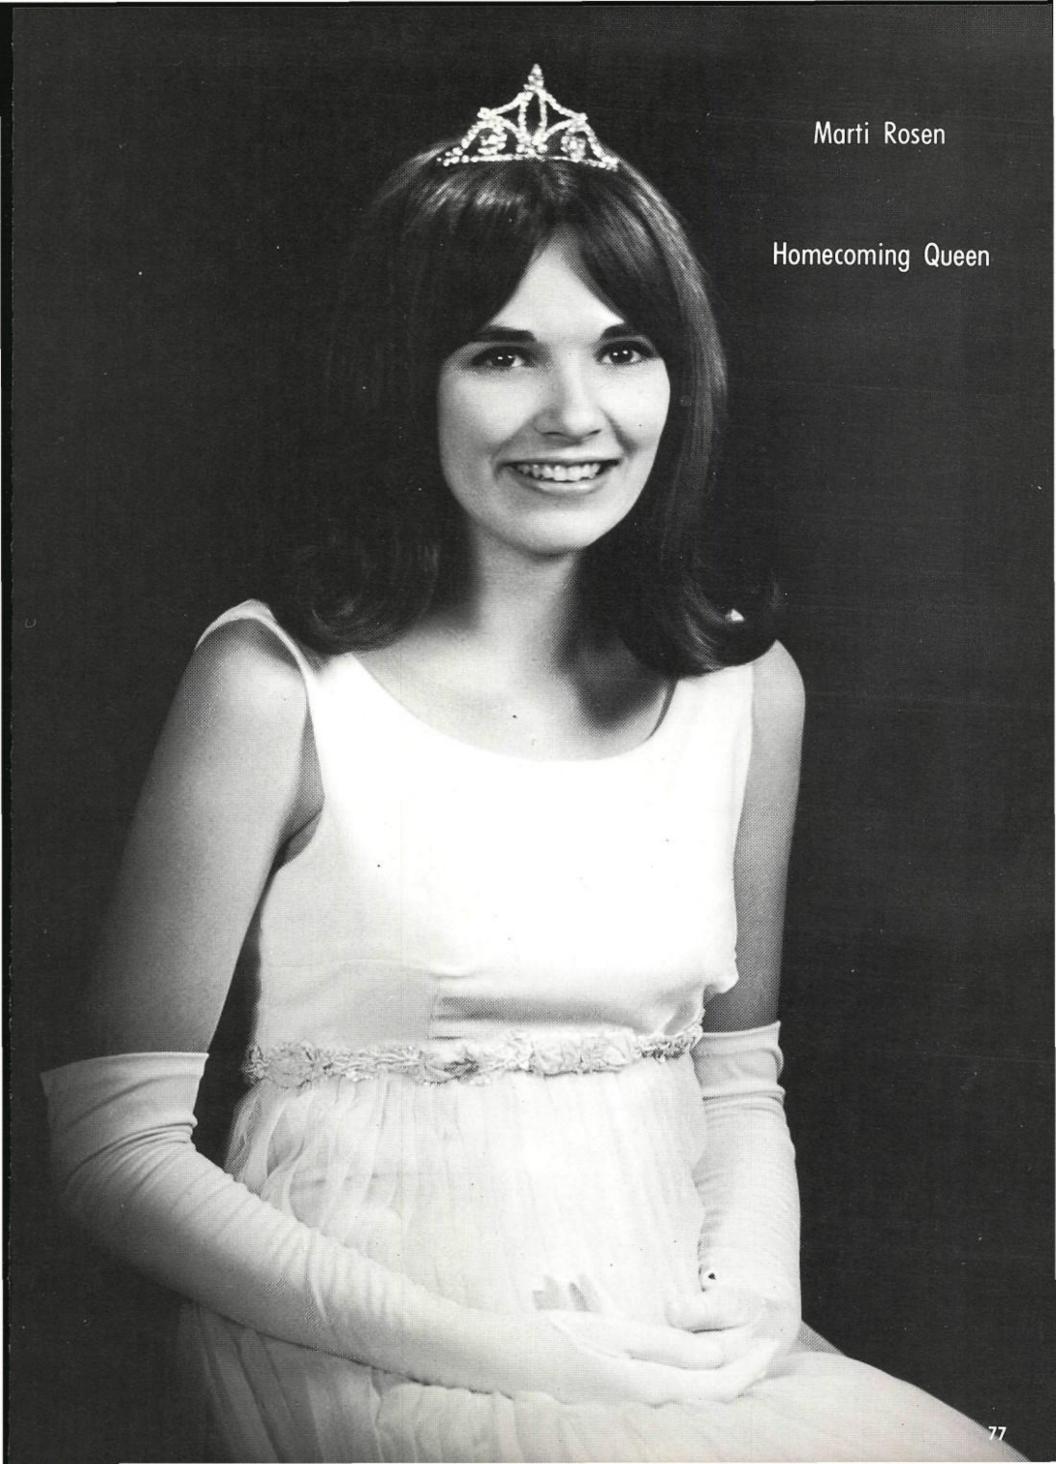

Homecoming Royalty 1968

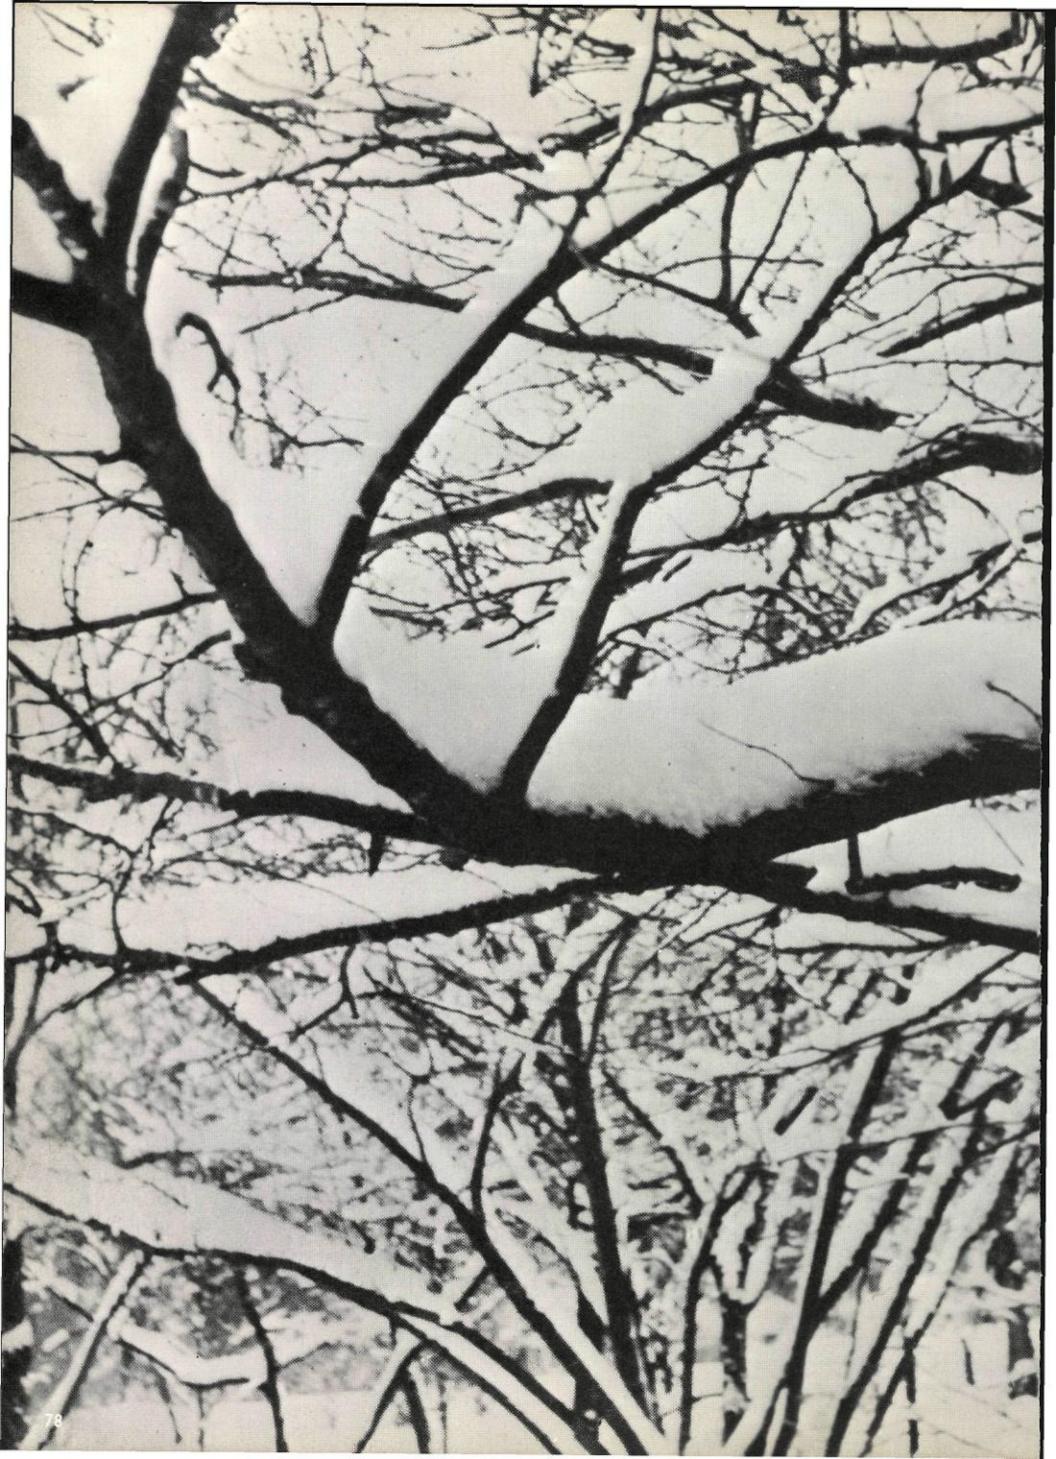

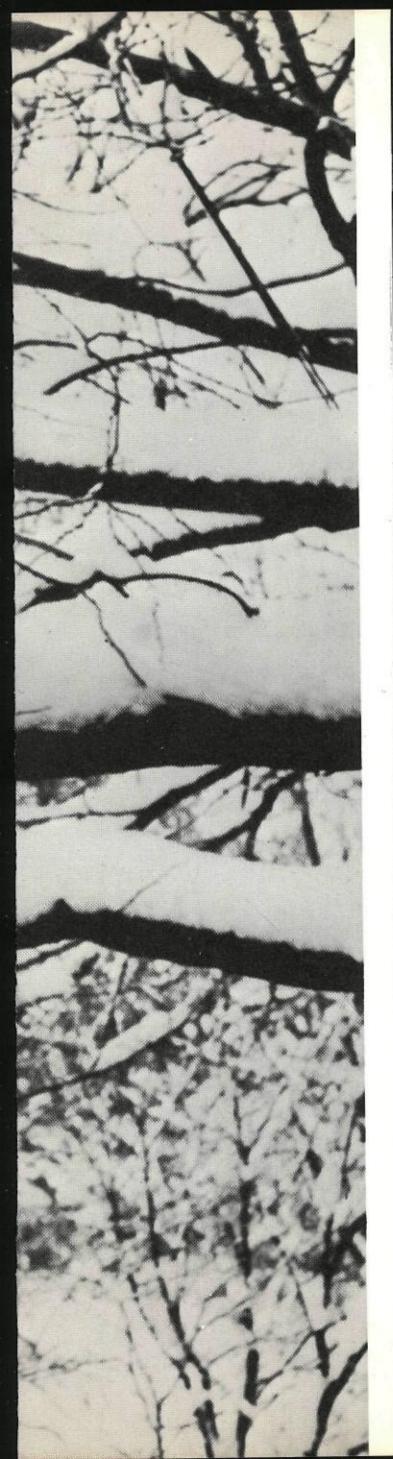

Sara Harper Attendant

Penny Reeves Attendant

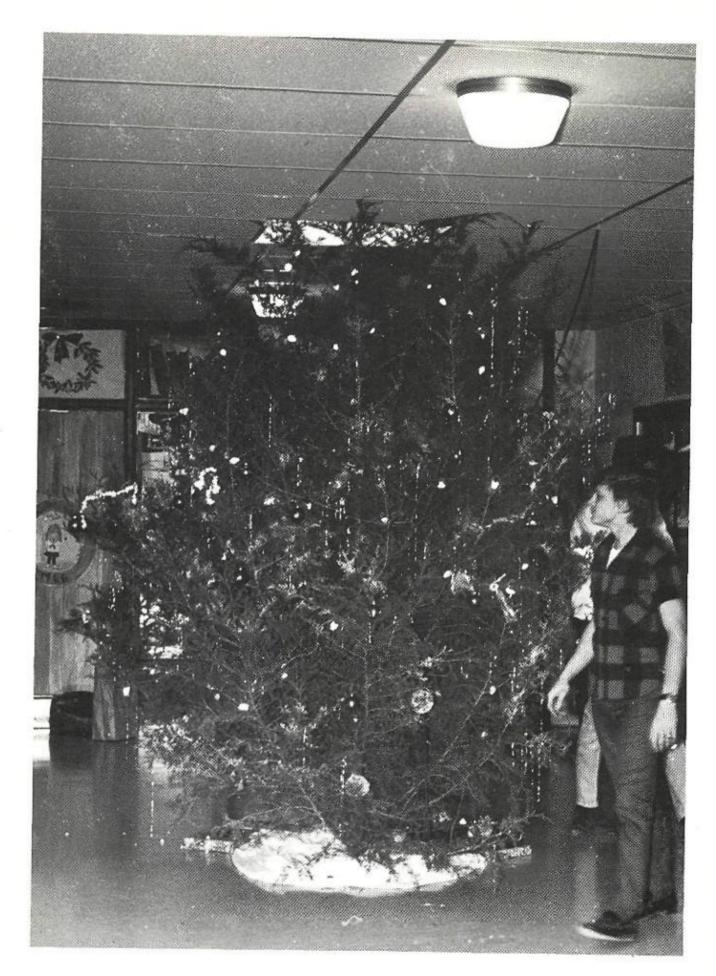

WINTER

Look around, Leaves are brown, There's a patch of snow on the ground, And the sky is a hazy shade of winter

Paul Simon

Traditional Decorations

Christmas . . . fond memories . . . traditions . . . the glow of candles . . . special friends . . . sharing . . . home made candy . . . warmth . . . people . . . wishes . . . sugarplums . . . happiness . . . caroling in the cold . . . Christmas angels . . holy nights . . . the scent of holly . . love . . the joy of giving . . . candy canes . . thoughtfulness . . . hand made ornaments . . pine trees . . . standing under mistletoe . . . the star . . . firelight . . . sparkling snow flakes . . rejoice . . peace on earth . . bells . . tinsel . . good will . . dreaming in the peaceful silence of Christmas Eve . . . the spirit of Christmas . . .

and Programs Enhance Christmas Season

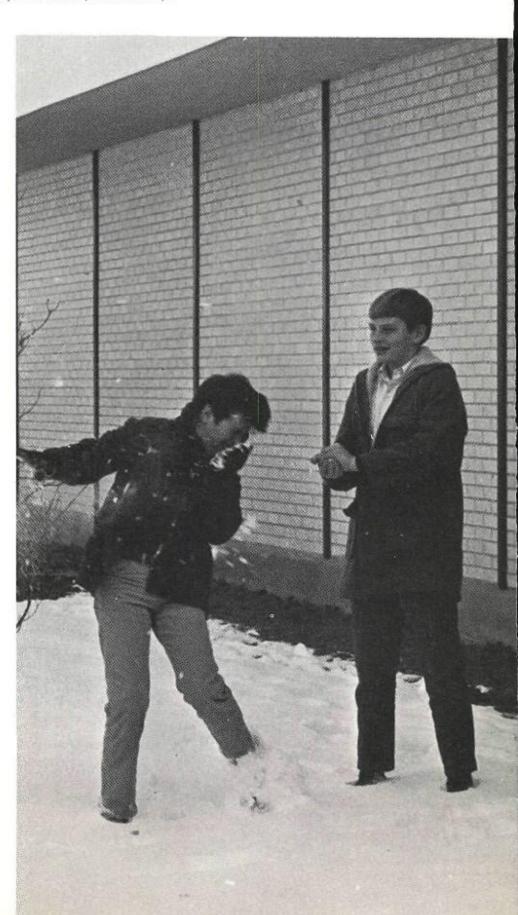

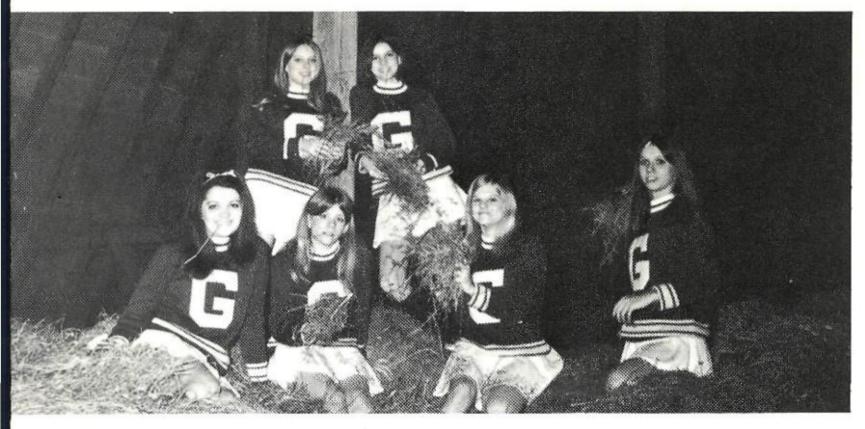

Far left: Seniors decorated the halls with the traditional tree and parts of decorations taken from Christmases past. (David Bilyeu). Above: It wouldn't be Christmas without a visit from Santa Claus to the Kindergarten party. (Dwain Conkright). Left: Sophomore Christmas decorations, the friendly beasts, keep watch over the school by night.

Above: Participation can be a quiet fireside discussion between friends. (Brad Thomas, Curt Carr, Tom Gilmore). Below: A snowball fight is participation in the truest sense. (Tiger Hop'tins, Bobby Kollmeier).

Winter Comes . . . And With It The Joy Of Participation

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS find time to relax despite a heavy schedule of practicing and cheering. Long. Susie Farthing, Julie H'Doubler, Sharon Savage, Terry Martin, and Sarah Hopkins).

(Caryn

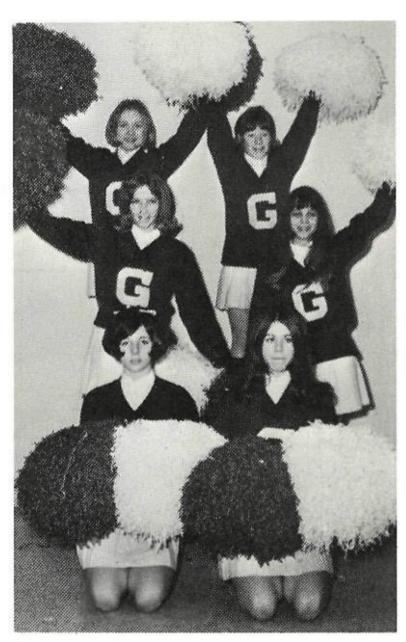

rranging new pom-pons are eighth grade cheerleaders. (Joni Simmons, Parol Morris, Cindy Heter, Andrea Knabb, Beverly Windle and Debbie AcDowell).

During a time out of the Liberal game, the "B" cheerleaders do a cheer by try and promote school spirit as they did throughout the season.

Cheerleaders Arouse Spirit

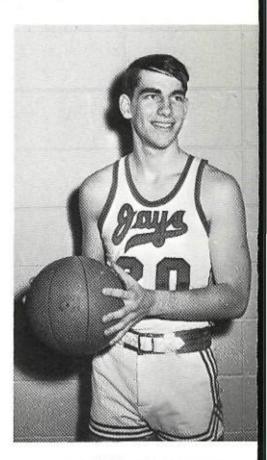

Being able to elect cheerleaders for the first time, the seventh grade chose these spirited girls. (Susan Turner, Vicki Gleason, Susie Mullins, Wendy Sundstrom. Julia Hayes, and Mary Gilbert).

B-ball ... big blue ... blisters and sore feet ... one and one ... technical foul ... "Go Jays" ... "Lockweed" ... The Twins ... late dates ... gentlemen ... cheerleaders ... afternoon practice ... long bus rides ... seating arrangements ... mile walks ... bad buses ... mono strikes again ... screen and roll ... give and go ... through the hoop ... "We want two" ... "Get that ball" ... last second comeback ... double overtime ... senior power ... the chipmunks ... "Green Weenies and Yellow Bellies" ... crows nest ... "Blue Babies" ... tip off ... 3-2-1 ...

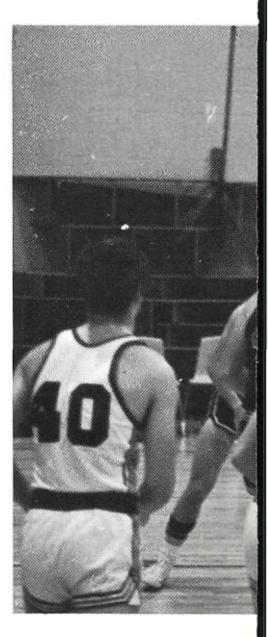

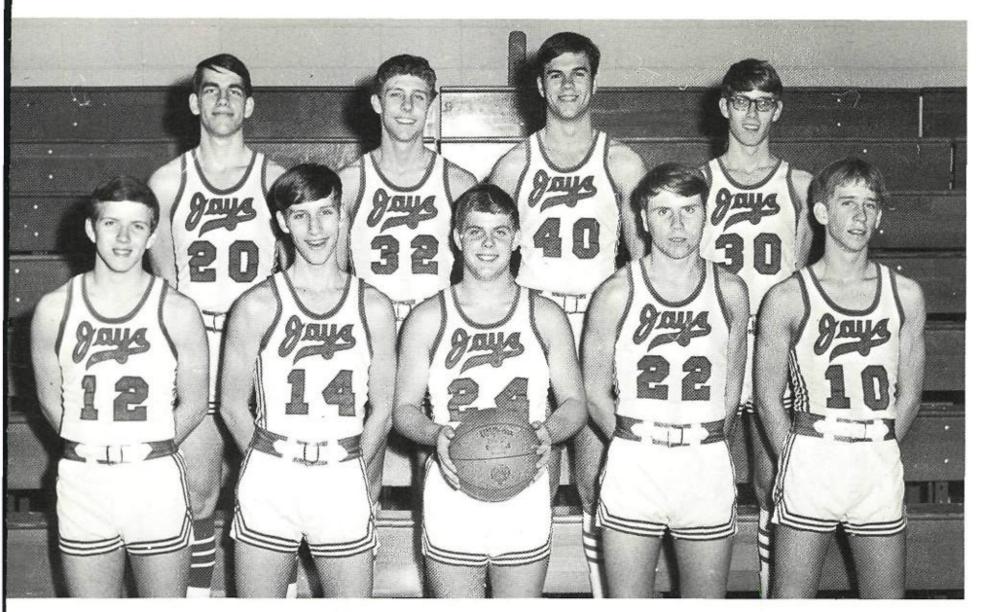

Above: Over the Christmas holidays a large crowd turned out for the annual Blue and Gold tournament. Fighting to gain possession of the ball, the Jays went on to defeat Sparta in the first round of the tourney. (Buzz Oatman, Steve Stombaugh, Jack Neely).

Basketball Team Show Spirit And Enthusiasm

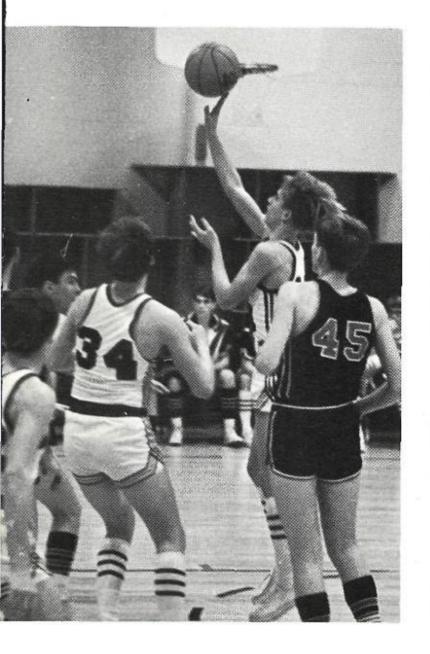

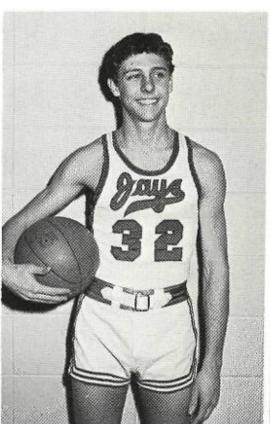

MATT FAIRLEIGH forward

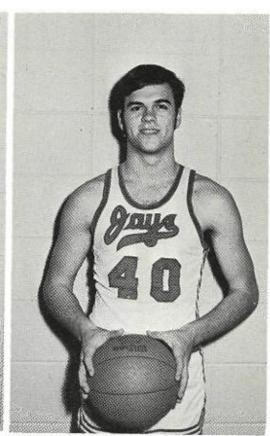

Above: VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM: Row I, left to right: Mike Williams, Rick Jackson, Steve Stombaugh, Paul Redfearn, Walter Powell. Row 2: Matt Fairleigh, Tom Hopkins, Jack Neely, David Ball.

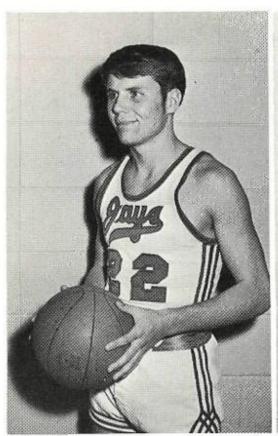

JACK NEELY forward

Left: The ball is shot and two points are planted on the scoreboard. The Jays are assured a home victory. (Walter Powell, Jack Neely, Buzz Oatman, Paul Redfearn).

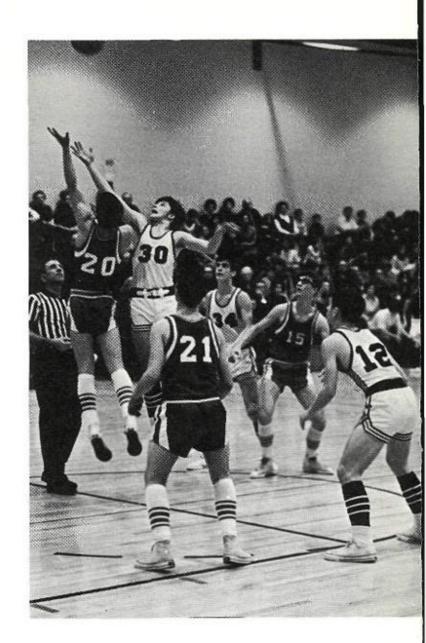

Right: Jays jump high at a home, junior varsity game. They make an all out effort in the game. (Steve Rich, Paul Meyer, Joe Millsap).

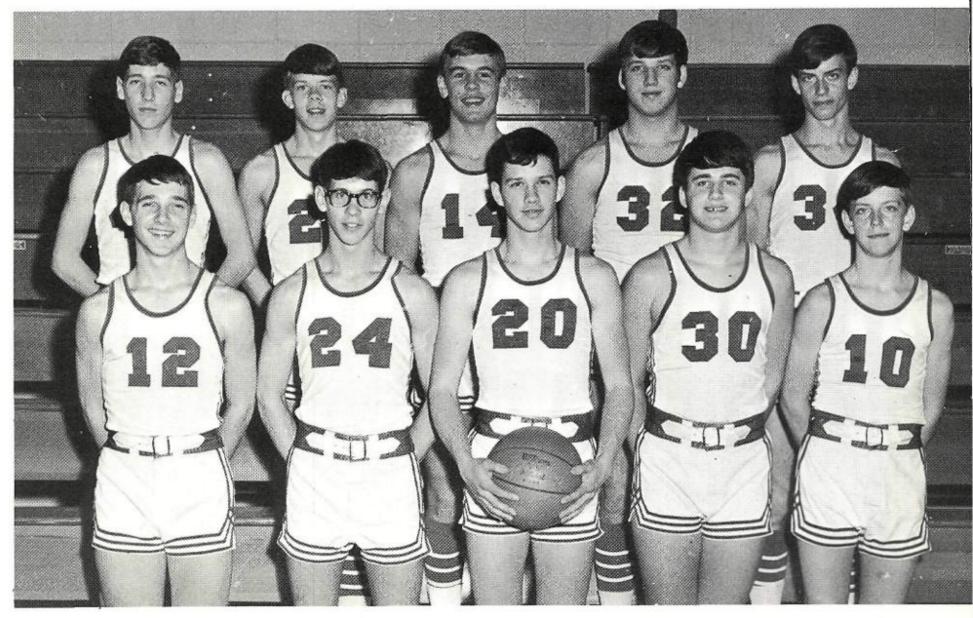

PAUL REDFEARN guard

MIKE WILLIAMS guard

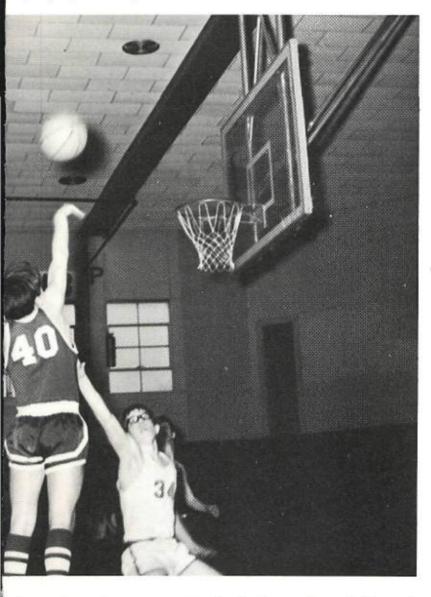

Above: JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM: Row I, left to right: Joe Millsap, Eric Shryer, Steve Payne, Steve Rich, Mark Meyer. Row 2: Jim Corbett, Rick McQueary, David Bingham, Mark Ringenberg, Paul Meyer.

Eighth Grade Undefeated In Junior High Basketball

First time for involvement in the high school sports or seventh graders ... tournaments at the Boys' Club ... Jayhawkers placing second in the Knights of Columbus Tournament ... watching he ball instead of the cheerleaders ... undeteated victory in the Midwest Conference ... eighth grade's perfect record of 29 wins and no osses for a two year winning streak ... thoughts of playing varsity in the future ...

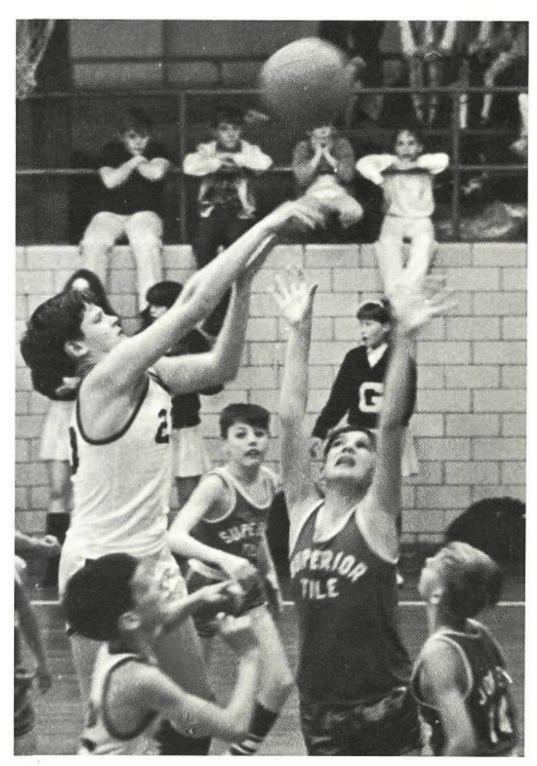

the pattern is run correctly the ball can be put through or two points. (Paul Roberts).

The theory that teamwork is the essence of a good basketball team is demonstrated by the eighth grade. (Paul Mullins and Mark Haseltine).

The superior height of the seventh grade enables them to put the ball up and over their opponents. (Mark Rich and Brad Bassore).

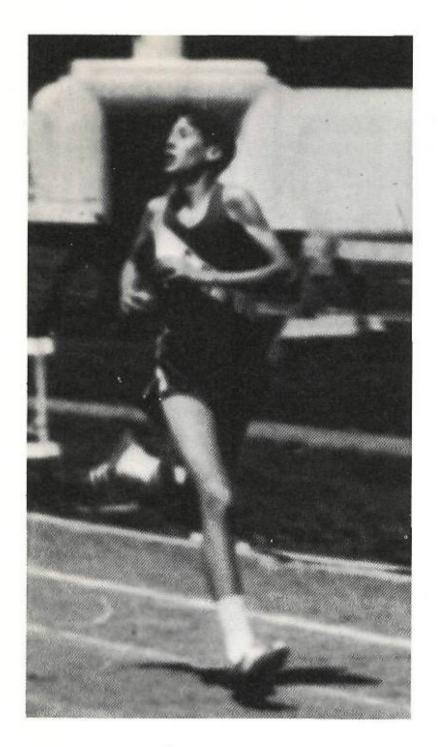

SPRING

What can this spring say that other springs have not already told us?

And yet, how happily we listen.

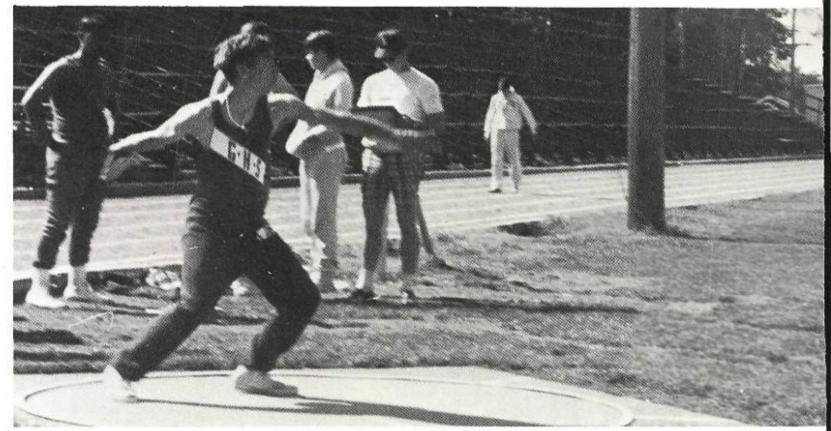

Anon.

Students Earn Awards In Spring Sport

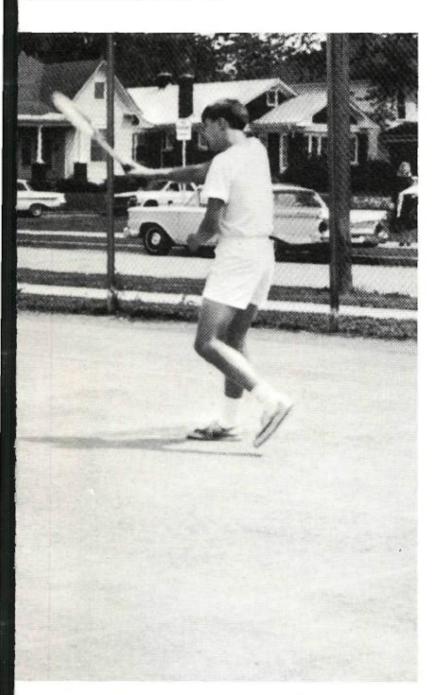

Upper left: The 440 yard dash is known as a gruelling race. Here runner complete a muscle-straining race in the Speedy Collins Relays. (Jin Corbett). Upper right: Experts will tell you that correct form is one of the most important elements in hurdle racing. (Joe Millsap).

Along with skill, supreme effort and concentration are necessary for the discus thrower to be a good competitor Greenwood's entry utilizes these concepts as he prepares to throw the disc. (Larry Pohl).

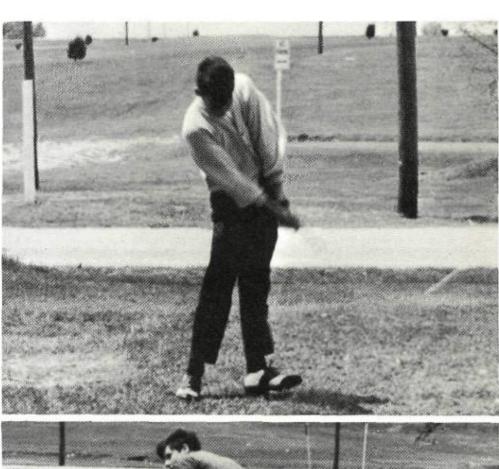

ore ... a sunny day ... two out of three sets .. a rained out match ... that reliable backhand .. golf ... that alive feeling ... You mean girls blay golf too? ... tennis ... a hole-in-one ... rack ... that tired feeling ... sprints ... oh, hese tired muscles ... I'm over par? ... A rainy neet ... being outdoors ... I forgot my racket! ... sinking that important putt ... running in the nud ... practice, practice, practice ... What's he pie plate for? ... a wet green ... returning a hot serve ... I dropped the baton ... up, up, and over ... teeing off ... the absence of cheereaders ... heh, a stilt! ...

Left: Balance, coordination, and a strong follow through are important in the making of a well-rounded tennis player. Greenwood's tennis team strives for these goals. (Paul Redfearn). Middle right: A good iron can always save a boor tee shot to salvage a par. (Dwain Conkright). Below: A putt must be made carefully and with the proper orce if you want it to find its mark. (Butch Morris).

Plans for the spring golf season must be discussed with Miss Hendricks, the girls' golf sponsor. (Lora Stewart and Nancy Hayes).

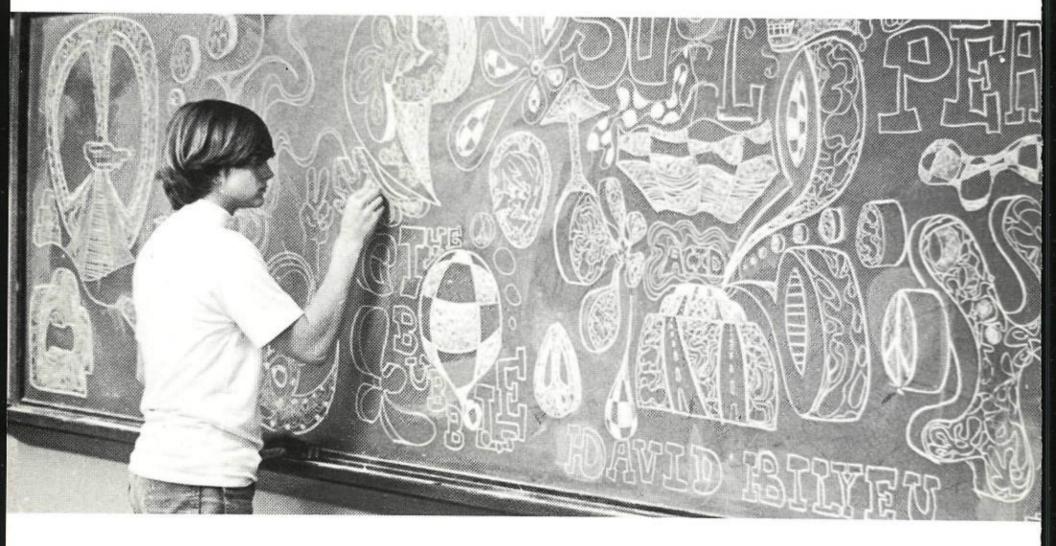

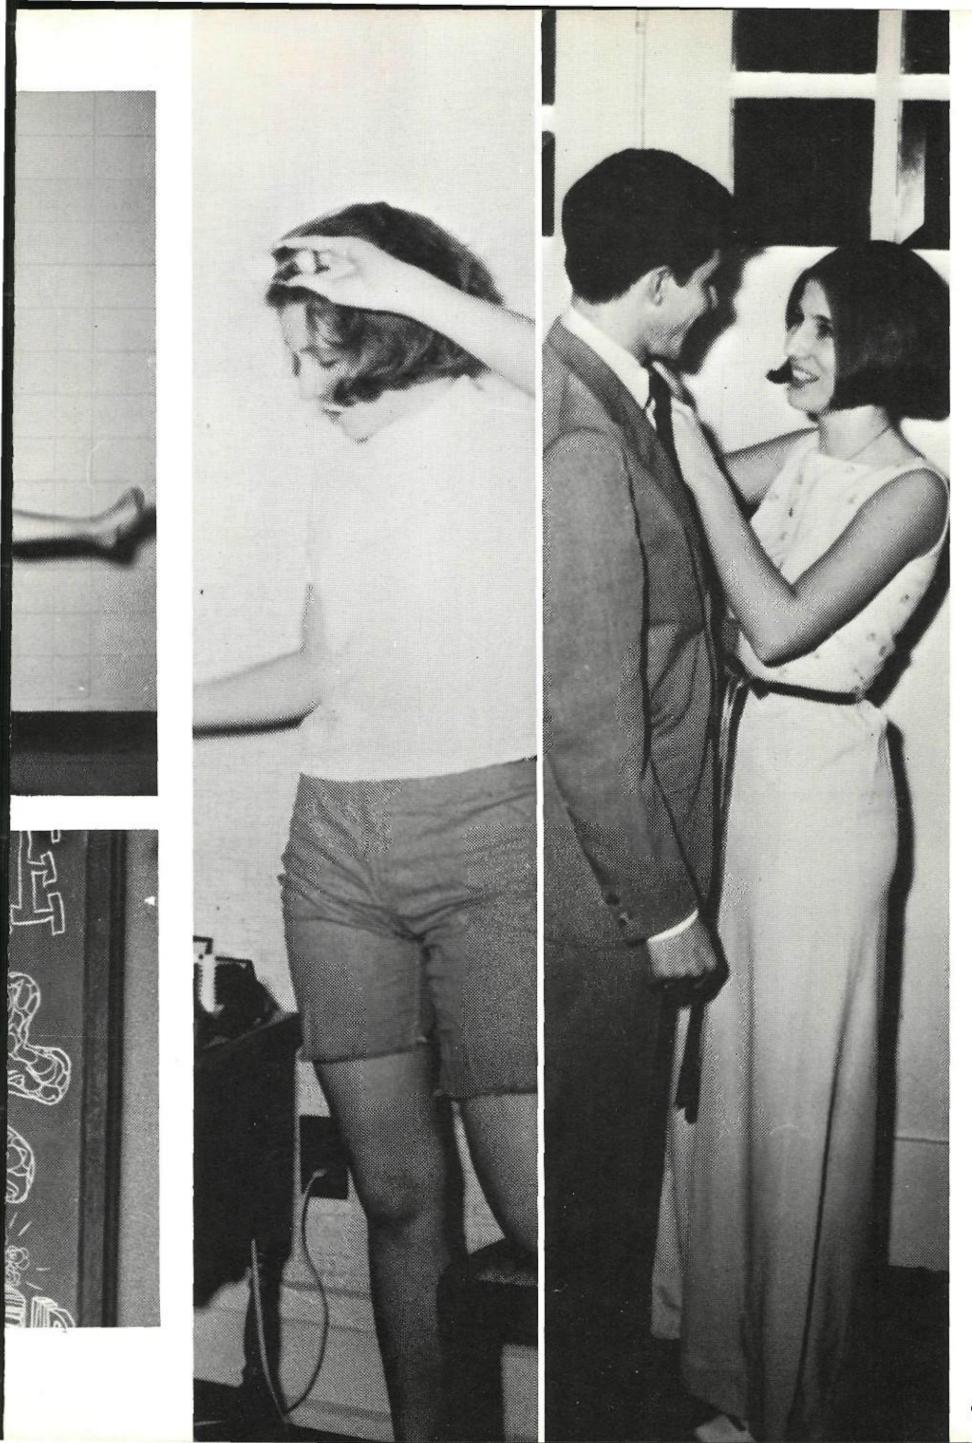

A Crystal Spring Comes Shining

Far right: The Junior-Senior prom seen Before ... After. (Cathy Corbett). Right: Tryouts climax the year for prospective cheerleaders. (Sharon Savage). Below: Art takes many shapes as seen in this one-man exhibit. (David Bilyeu).

A whole year: "Gone With The Wind" ... Spring blown to an end with a beautiful prom ... concession stands ... work ... tired ... finally a successful night ... Senior power ... Junior pride ... "in just-Spring when the world is puddle-wonderful" ... this year—this prom—this spring—they're all right! ...

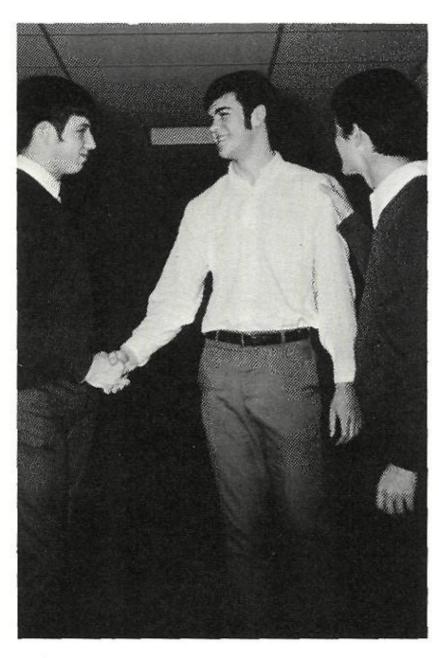

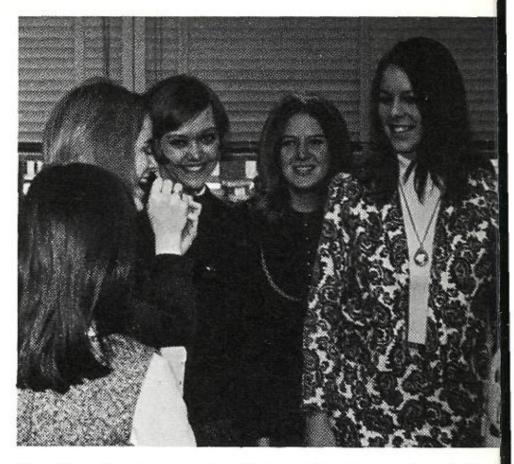

Achievements Acknowledged On Honor Day

A stage full of flowers ... "To a Wild Rose" ... Fair and Sir Greenwood ... a hushed entrance ... "Honor Day began in" ... cherished traditions ... the sum of a year's work ... acknowledgement of honors ... speech award ... athletics ... departmental honors ... leadership qualities ... service ... citizenship ... "outstanding accomplishment in" ... Looking up to Senior honors ... Oh Greenwood Alma Mater dear ... that nervous moment on stage ... hearing your achievements ... a beautiful American Beauty Rose ... goodbye to the Seniors ... a feeling of accomplishment ... the end of a year's hard work ... looking ahead to next year ...

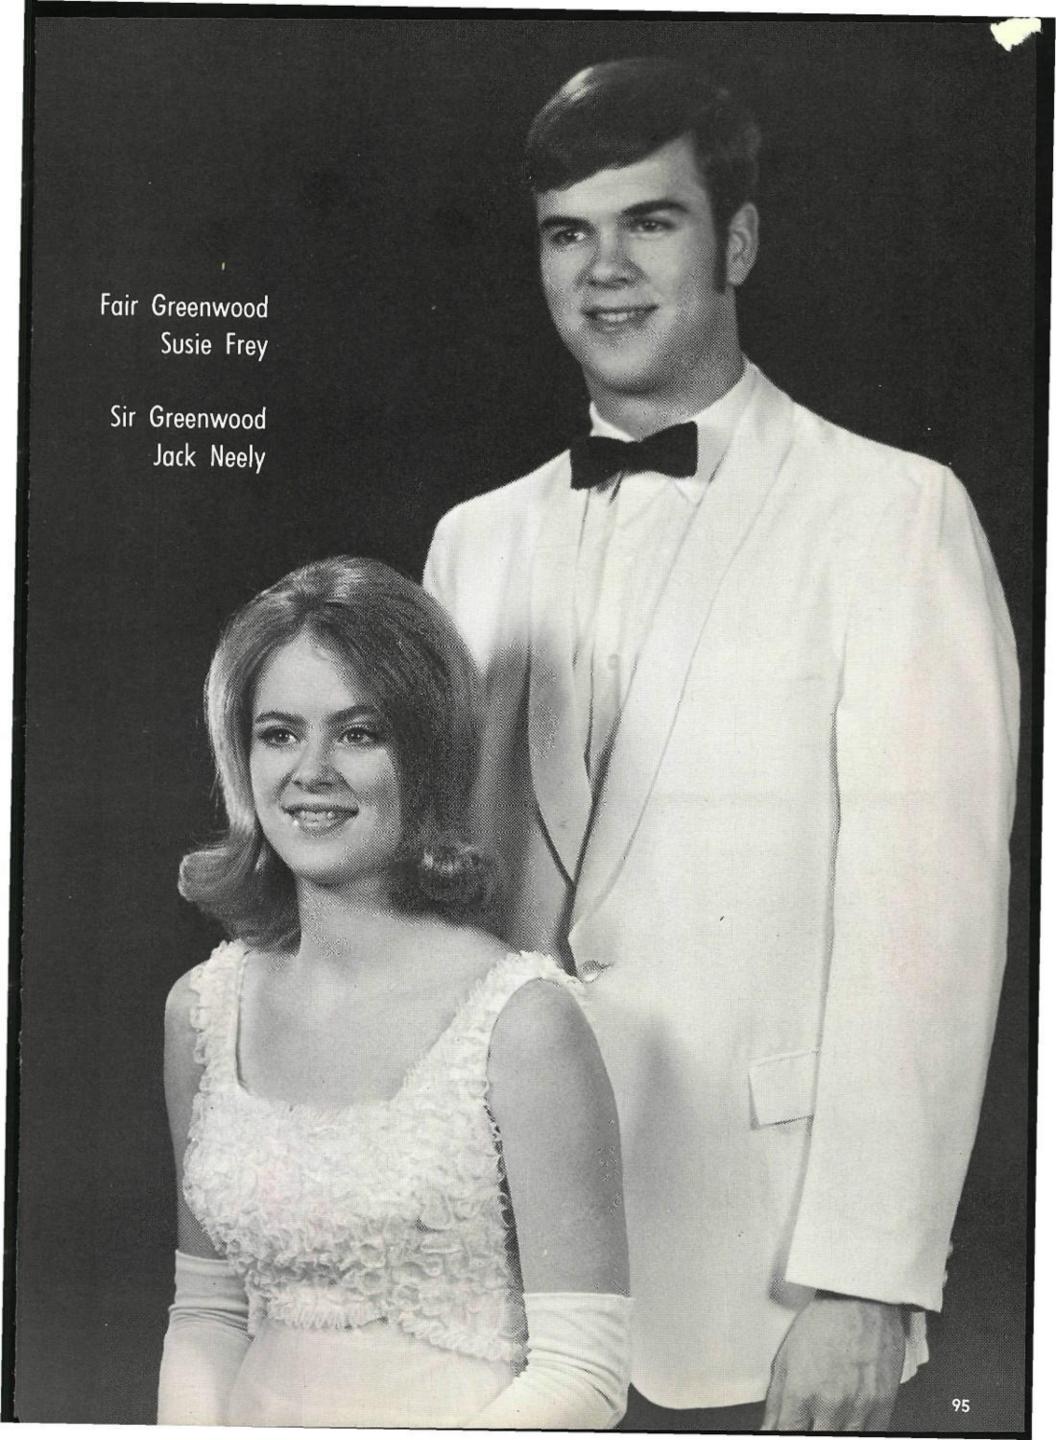

Jack is congratulated for being chosen Sir Greenwood. (Mark Ringenberg, Jack Neely, and Brad Thomas).

The girls gather to congratulate Susie on Fair Greenwood. (Elfried McCrory, Susie Frey, Krissie Kieferndorf, Julie Gilmore and Jann Lea

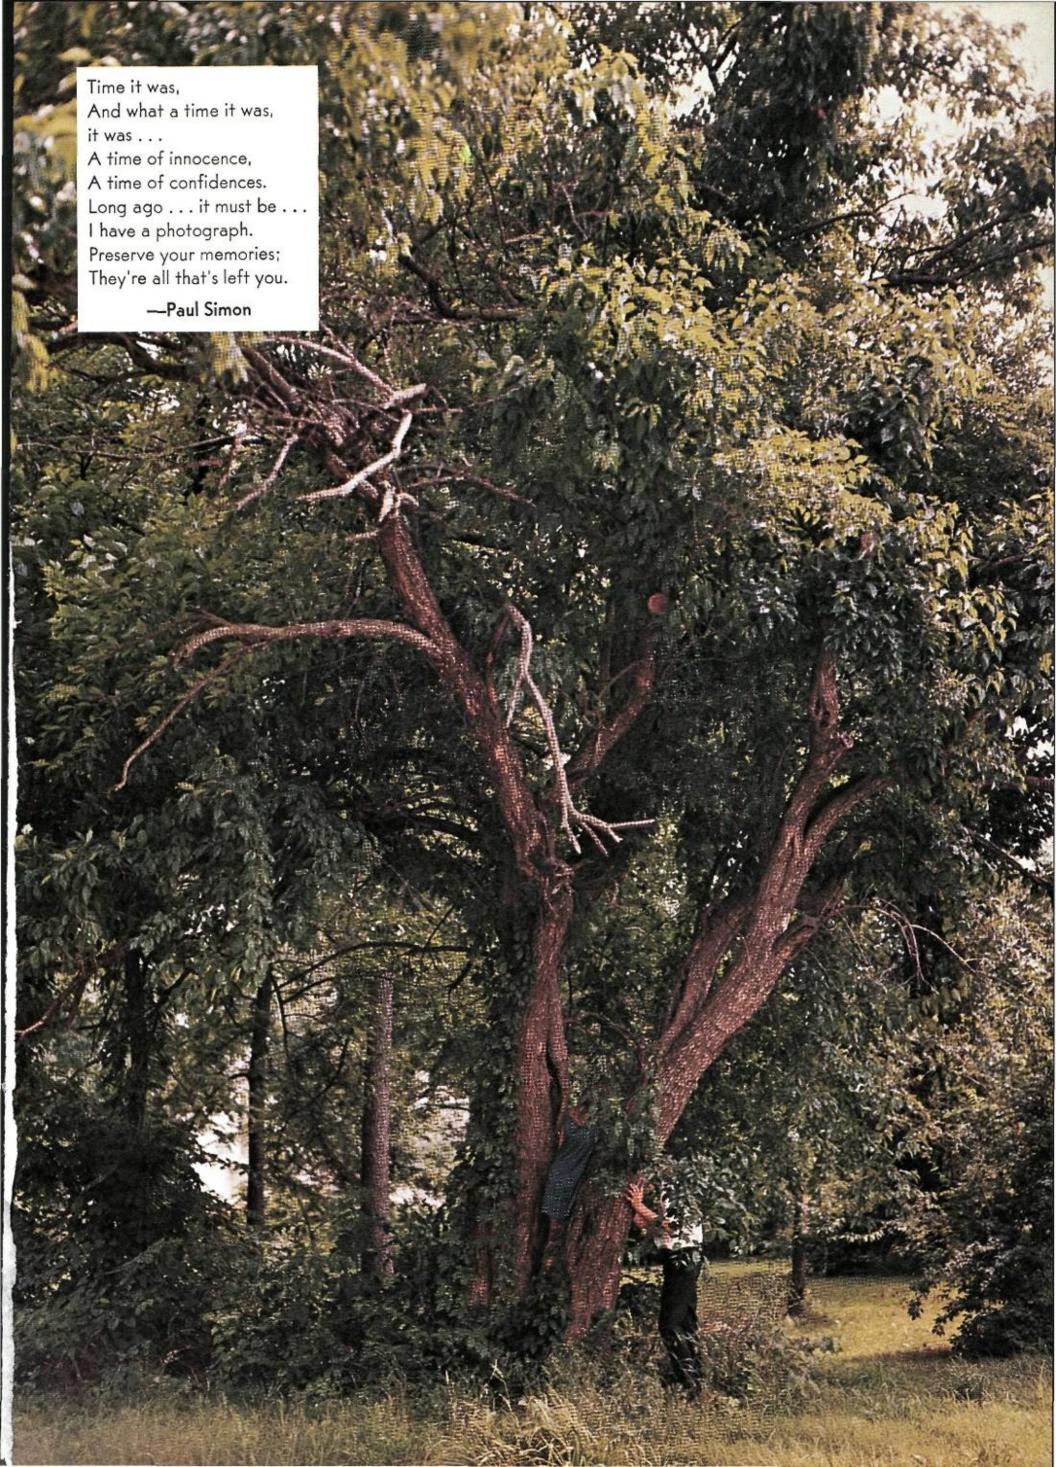

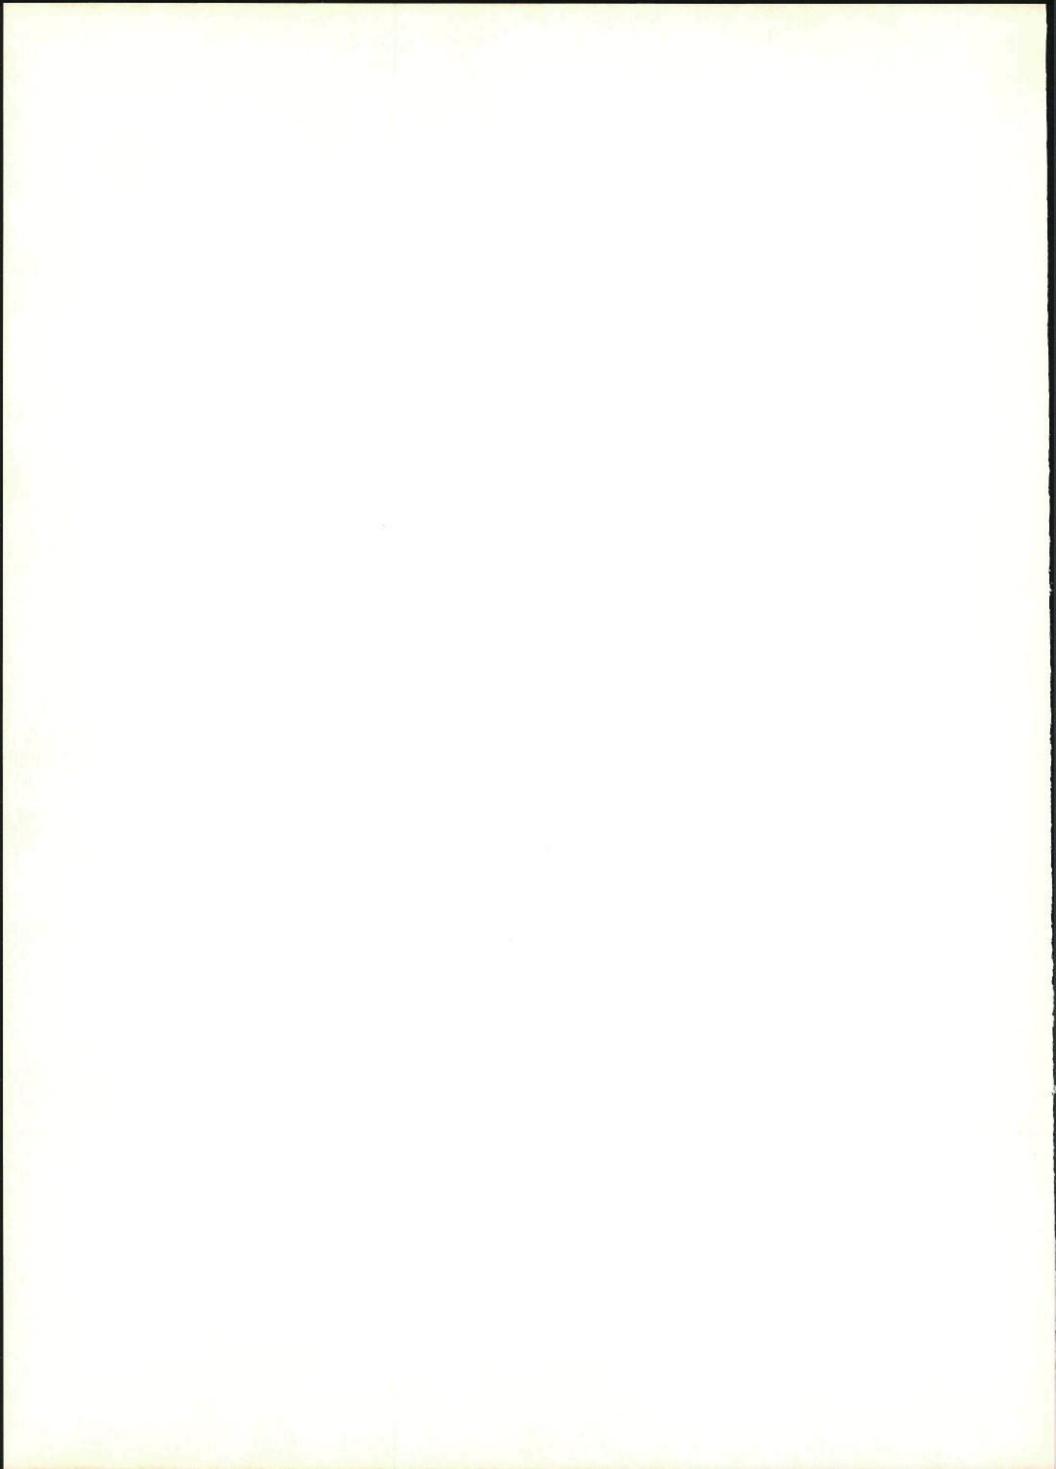

One duty of the juniors is to prepare for Honor Day by finding chairs for Fair and Sir Greenwood. (Judi Kollmeier and Laura Elliott).

"What we have done here will not be lost to all eternity, everything ripens at its time and becomes fruit in its season."

Magnaphs

